WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1905

The funeral services of Mrs. Belle Wooley occurred at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Sunday at 11 o'clock. The building was filled to its utmost capacity by relatives and friends who gathered to pay her the last tribute of love and respect before she was laid at rest in the cemetery.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Grace and was very impressive.

Gathered in front of the casket, were her husband and five children and many relatives, among whom were her father and mother and the parents of Mr. Wooley, all old people but still strong in life.

Mrs. Wooley was raised in this vicinity, married and raised her family here and by her well regulated life, her sociable and pleasant ways had endeared herself to all.

The husband bereft of a loving wife and the children of a tender mother have the sympathy of the community.

M. W. A. Picnic at Crow.

Cottage Grove camp M. W. of A. were represented at the County Annual picnic at Crow, by J. Baker and wife, LeRoy Woods and wife, Charley Tompkins, and L. C. Hutchinson. The weather was very unfavorable but at least 1000 people attended. The programme was carried out as advertised with exception of the fat man's race. There were plenty of fat men there but it wasn't a good day for the race (the human race.)

In the morning a fine speech was delivered by Mr. Miller, the state lecturer, and in the afternoon Neighbor Simmons, state organizer, delivered one of his characteristic speeches with a real live goat attachment which made a bit, not on, but with the audience. The Web Foot camp deserves much credit for the success of the picnic. They had the grounds in the grove nicely cleaned and plenty of seats to make all comfortable. The Crow band discoursed good music and plenty of it. When lunch time was announced the hospitable Crows brought out great clothes baskets and wash tubs filled with "yaller" legged chickens, etc., and say! the writer got up that morning at 3 o'clock and rode 7 hours and walked over the muddy road, so you can draw your own conclusion. The sports were enjoyed by all who could see them. There was chopping and sawing contests, sprinting, boys and free for all, high jump, tug-of-war between M. W. A. team and a picked team from crowd. This was won by M. W. of A. Pillow fight etc. but the feature of the day was a baseball game between Eugene High School team and a picked team of M. W. A. won by High School, score 11 to 6. The I. O. O. F. and M. W. of A. lodges at Crow are in a very prosperous condition and own a good building two stories, about 30 by 80 ft. Lodge room above and store room below. The lower room is vacant at present and a big dance was held until midnight, 80 numbers being sold and 6 set kept constantly on the move.

The writer was entertained at the home of the Hollands, who are prominent citizens as well as M. W. of A. and I. O. O. F. workers, three of them now holding highest offices in Web Foot camp M. W. of A. By the way this same Holland family hold the distinction of being the heaviest family in average weight in Oregon. Nine members, 6 boys, 2 girls and mother weigh 2119 pounds.

The members of the M. W. of A. present met and after hearing report of committees, voted to hold next annual picnic at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Welch, now residing at Blackbutte, returned on Saturday from Portland where they had been to bury their daughter, Bessie, who died at their home

May 29th. Portland was formerly their home and when it was learned they had come to that city on their sad mission, many of their friends visited them to express their sympathy and to bring flowers in loving remembrance of the girl they had known and loved. The body was deposited in the Lone Fir Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Welch before moving to Blackbutte resided in Cottage Grove, where Miss Bessie was loved by all who knew her. For some years she has not been well and her death was not wholly unexpected. She was 22 years of age. The parents have the sympathy of their friends in Cottage Grove.

To Old Soldiers.

Headquarters Association of the First Oregon Cavalry and the First Oregon Infantry, LaGrande, Oregon, May 10, 1905.

Comrades:—The fourth annual reunion of the First Oregon Cavalry, United States Volunteers, and the First Oregon Infantry United States Volunteers' Association will be held in conjunction with the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Oregon City, Oregon, on June 24, 1905.

All comrades requested to be present and participate.

A cordial invitation is given to all persons who served in either the First Oregon Cavalry, United States Volunteers, or in the First Oregon Infantry, United States Volunteers, and did duty in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah or Nevada from 1861 to 1866, and to their parents, wives and descendants, to join in the reunion and talk over the incidents of long ago.

GEO. B. CURREY, Commander.

W. M. HILLARY, Adjutant.

The Jeffersonian, a paper devoted to the interests of the twenty-seventh ward of Chicago, has this interesting item about our new pastor at Cottage Grove: "Rev. and Mrs. Grant Stewart left here Sunday evening last for Cottage Grove, Oregon. A large number of friends accompanied them to the union depot. It is safe to say that no person has ever left this community leaving behind a larger number of fast and loyal friends than Mr. and Mrs. Stewart. Mr. Stewart has been pastor of the M. E. church of this place almost four years. His administration has been successful in every feature. He leaves it out of debt and in a flourishing and healthy condition, and with the love and esteem of every one of its members. His removal is also a great loss to the suburb, as he was a broad man and interested himself in every worthy enterprise. A prominent minister of the city stated that Rock River Conference had also suffered a severe loss. We all join them in wishing them both prosperity and that the Far Western climate may speedily restore them to health."

Returns With Bride.

About the first of last April Mr. Ben Trygstad went (as we say in this country to the East) to Minn. and Ill. on a visit, at least that was the statement made to his friends. That he had another object in view is evidenced by the fact, that on Monday he arrived here with his bride, who was until recently, Miss Tillie Johnson of Rockford, Ill.

Mr. Trygstad is an owner of mining properties in Bohemia, and has worked in a number of the mines there. He put in last winter at the Riverside property.

He, accompanied by Mrs. Trygstad went to Bohemia this morning.

Portland's Next Mayor

Dr. Harry Lane, Democrat, was elected Monday over George H. Williams, Republican incumbent, by a large majority of votes. One Democrat was elected to the Council, W. T. Vaughn in the Tenth Ward. One independent was elected, Hugh W. Wallace, for Councilman for the Second ward, against L. M. Sullivan, Republican. In all the other cases than the ones named in the foregoing the regular Republican nominees won.

The new city officers will take their places in the city government July 1.

Golden Rule Stockholders.

Tuesday afternoon Wm. Wechter of Salem and manager of the Golden Rule Slipper Company, whose mining properties are in the Bohemia Mining District, arrived on the afternoon train.

Mr. Wechter is accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lehman and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lehman of Berne, Indiana. The gentlemen are stockholders in the Golden Rule company and desire to see the claims belonging to that company.

The party took the O. & S. E. train this morning for camp.

JUDGE WHITNEY'S EXPERIENCE

One of Albany's Most Prominent Citizens Cured of Deafness by Dr. Darrin.

Eugene Journal

Judge Whitney, so well and favorably known throughout the country and state, is another witness to the workings of electricity, as he has just come out of the "electrical chair" not electrocuted, but cured of deafness by Dr. Darrin, the specialist, who is now located at the Hotel Smeede, Eugene. Dr. Darrin is perfectly frank in telling each one the true condition of his or her case, and just what might be expected as the result of treatment, or whether any treatment would do good.

The rooms of Dr. Darrin are often crowded, and he is kept constantly busy. There are a great many people who will be glad to know that the doctor has been prevailed upon to visit Eugene.

JUDGE WHITNEY'S OPEN LETTER

Albany, Oregon.
Dr. Darrin—Dear Sir: Your electrical and other treatment of my ear has been entirely successful. I have been for a number of years past troubled with a roaring in one of my ears, and I was gradually losing my hearing from some cause. My hearing had become so impaired that it was difficult for me to hear any person talking in an ordinary conversational tone of voice. A short time ago I commenced taking treatment from you for the roaring in my head and deafness. The roaring in my head has entirely ceased and my hearing has returned so that I can hear as well as I ever could. You are at liberty to refer any one to me or publish this letter. Very respectfully,
J. J. WHITNEY.

DR. DARRIN'S PLACE OF BUSINESS.

Dr. Darrin can be consulted free at the Hotel Smeede, Eugene, Ore., until July 1st from 10 to 5 o'clock daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sunday, 2 to 4 p. m.

The doctor makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, heart, liver, bladder and kidney diseases, or those who suffer from apathy or indifference; also gonorrhea and skin diseases, in either sex, such as blood taint, seminal weakness and lost vigor, varicose veins and stricture.

All curable chronic diseases treated at $5 a week, or in that proportion of time as the case may require. The poor treated free except medicines, from 10 to 11 daily. No case published except by permission of the patient. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential. One visit is desirable, though many cases can be treated by home treatment by writing symptoms.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

"Sleep for it" she cried to dozing. For she knew in her little heart, that German Syrup, would be great treasure. Could health and joy impart.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup. We know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchitis or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.
