CAPTURED

AT ROSEBURG

John Schaffer, who Stole Team at Cottage Grove, Captured at Roseburg. Now in Jail.

Two weeks ago last Thursday a man giving the name of John Schaffer, appeared at the Fashion Stables and asked for a team to drive, as he stated, up the Coast Fork some ten miles to see a party. He secured the team and went away with an overcoat that he stole from the stable which finally proved the cause of his capture.

After waiting until Saturday for the returning of the rig, the proprietors decided it had been stolen, and secured the services of R. W. Veatch, who was deputized as an officer and he started south by train. His first stop was at Roseburg, where he found the team, but the man had disappeared. The team was brought home and the man was given up.

Sunday the proprietors of the stables received a message that the man who had brought the team to the stable was again in Roseburg and orders were at once sent for his arrest. Veatch's services were again secured and he went to Roseburg and Monday noon returned with his prisoner.

The capture was caused by his calling at the stable and asking to leave his overcoat until called for. The coat was at once recognized by the stable men and the information sent here.

Upon his arrival he was taken directly before Justice Vaughn, where he plead guilty to the charge of grand larceny and was turned over to the officer to take to Eugene for trial at the June term of court.

Veatch says he has more names than are required for a number of men. While in Roseburg he went by the names of Shaffer, S. E. Church, G. E. Smith and endorsed a check with the name of F. C. Smith.

He has evidently been drinking heavily for sometime and begged like a child for mercy when before the judge and stated this was his first offense, which is doubted very much by those who have looked at him.

Obituary.

Mrs. Almedia Belle Wooley was born in Davis county, Iowa, December 15th, 1861. When but three years old her parents, Rev. Hamilton Wallace and his estimable wife, brought her across the plains and settled near Cottage Grove, Oregon. Here she grew to woman's estate, and on the second day of October 1881 she was married to Frank Wooley. To them have been born eight children, five, two boys and three girls are living, three having died in infancy.

Mrs. Wooley professed faith in Christ when she was eighteen years old, and united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Cottage Grove.

During her last illness she repeatedly stated that her faith was in God and on the day before she died said: "Jesus is coming for me." "He has opened the gate for me to pass in." She departed this life June 3, 1905, aged 43 years, 5 months and 18 days. Her pastor said, "I believe, could we hear her voice, she would be saying: 'Weep not husband and children for me, for I am waiting in heaven for thee.'"

The following is the text used: 1 Timothy 6:19, Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may hold on eternal life, or "life indeed."
