

Wedding Bells.

Even since the declaration, "It is not good for man to live alone," "The Lords of creation" have been taking unto themselves "help mates."

There were a number of handsome presents. The happy couple will make their home just west of the city a couple of miles, where Mr. Wheeler has erected a neat cottage.

May a long and useful life be theirs is the wish of their many friends.

GRIGGS-BINGHAM—At the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Bingham, in Eugene Oregon, June 28, 1905, Miss Maude Francis Bingham to Mr. David Griggs of Cottage Grove.

Just at 9.30 Miss Neva Perkins at the piano began the wedding march and the bridal party appeared. The groom was accompanied by his brother Mr. Roy Griggs. They were followed by Miss Bessie Johnson, (of Drain,) maid of honor, and Mr. Ben Bingham, brother of the bride.

The bride was beautiful in a dress of white organdie and silk chiffon and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore cream and carried white carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. The parlor was decorated with roses and fern and the dining room was artistic with nasturtiums. Dainty refreshments were served.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Antoinette Burdick. Mr. and Mrs. Griggs received many presents. They will make their home in this city where they are both well known, the bride having resided here for a while and the groom being one of Cottage Grove's prominent business men.

Those present from Cottage Grove were: Mrs. Lurch and the Misses Lillie and Celia Lurch, Daisy and Ida Thomas, Neva Perkins, Gertrude and Antoinette Burdick, Mr. Roy Griggs and Mrs. Earl and son Elmer.

LANDRITH—George Landrith was born in Greyson county, Virginia, March 7th 1838, and died at Hardy Crow's, Lorane, Lane county, Oregon, June 26th 1905. When three months old his parents moved from Virginia to Linn county, Missouri, where they lived until the spring of 1853, when they crossed the plains to Lane county, Oregon. With the exception of a few years, George Landrith has been a resident of Lane county, until his death. He joined the M. E. Church in 1857 and has been a true member ever since.

He was also a charter member of the Siuslaw Grange. He never married and he leaves two sisters and brothers to mourn his loss, Mrs. Hardy Crow and Mrs. Dora Cathcart, Mr. Joseph Landrith and Mr. Oliver Landrith.

Stores Consolidate.

The furniture stock owned by Marion Veatch, and that owned by B. K. Lawson, which was recently purchased of Veatch & Briggs, will be consolidated and moved together in the building known as the Martin & Lawson Building on the south side of Main street, opposite the Wynne Hardware Co.

The lower floor of said building is being remodeled to accommodate the increased stock, and the upper floor will be used for carpet and matting rooms, and Undertaking parlors.

The building now occupied by Marion Veatch will be used for warehouse purposes. The new firm will be known as Veatch & Lawson, and they expect, by this move, to be able to better meet the wants of the people and render better service. They earnestly solicit new as well as old patronage.

CROSS EYES CURED

Dr. Darrin Has Chosen July 15th and 16th for Treating Such Cases All Varicoel, Hydrocele, Stricture and Other Operations.

Eugene Journal.

Among Dr. Darrin's specialists he is an expert operator in straightening cross eyes, and can straighten the worst eyes in less than twenty minutes. The worthy poor treated free.

The operation is rendered painless by a local anesthetic, and no chloroform is used. Patients can return home the same day, with no detention from business or occupation.

Cases may call now and make appointments for treatment during the two days, July 15th and 16th, and avoid the rush the doctor has on his special days. The following references, taken from many, prove the doctor's success:

Mrs. R. Backford's son, Roseburg, cross eyes cured.

E. E. Grout, LaGrande, Ore., cross eyes cured.

Miss Maggie Synhorst, LaGrande, Ore., cross eyes cured.

Miss Lucy Moran, Monmouth, Ore., cross eyes cured.

Miss Mary Walter, Portland, both eyes crossed, cured.

A. Taylor, Pendleton, Ore., stricture cured.

W. W. Thompson, Vancouver, Wash., hydrocele, cured.

A. J. Armstrong, 10 Third street, Portland, varicocele, cured ten years ago.

Miss Bettie Snow, Edison, Wash., cross eyes since two years old; cured in one minute. The following names will go far to substantiate the doctor's skill in Miss Snow's case:

"We, the undersigned, living at Edison, Wash., have known Miss Bettie Snow all her life, and know of her eyes being crossed and that she was successfully cured by Dr. Darrin."

"Rev. B. C. Fais, Rev. George Buzelle, W. J. McDonnell, post-master; W. B. Chamberlain, chief of police; A. D. Harris, druggist; D. C. Smith, I. W. Hard, jeweler."

J. Whitmore's daughter, Pendleton, Ore., cross eyes, cured.

William Muekle's boy and girl, Ramler, Ore., both cross eyes, cured.

J. Kimbley's boy, postmaster at Progress, Ore., cross eyes, cured.

Lena Hamilton, Dayton, Wash., cross eyes, cured.

E. A. Huntie, 119 Dexter street, Seattle, had been operated on twice unsuccessfully for cross eyes by other physicians before going to Dr. Darrin, cured.

Miss Mary McConnell, Genesee, Idaho, cross eyes, cured; also her brother was cured of consumption five years ago by Dr. Darrin.

Fanny Kennedy, Walla Walla, Wash., both eyes crossed since a child, cured.

Edward Stanfield, North Yakima, Wash., cross eyes 25 years; cured.

Dr. Darrin can be consulted free from 10 to 15 daily, evenings, 7 to 8, at the Smeede Hotel, Eugene, until October 1. All curable chronic, acute, and diseases of a private nature treated with electricity and medicines before and after above dates. Letters of inquiry answered. Circulars and question blanks set free.

Salem being the Capital, politicians feel at perfect liberty discussing matters relating to their trade. Just now natives and visitors alike are studying the direct primaries nominating system. Just how the new rule is to work is not quite understood. Should there be more than one candidate in the party seeking a nomination, votes will be cast for all, and it may be that the least popular man may get more votes and be nominated. The opposition will profit. Indeed the voters of the opposition may vote for the objectionable candidate expecting to beat him at the polls. It is urged that the electors have to register their party affiliations thus insuring that none but members of that party can vote the party ticket at the primary. But it must be remembered that only white ballots are issued at June elections and that the voter goes into a booth where he marks his ticket to suit him. At the primary election there is no compromising on candidates. Word comes from Union county that the republicans plan to hold a county caucus for the purpose of suggesting what candidates are to be voted for at the primaries in that county for state officers. The same plan may be adopted in other counties.

If the company in which you hold stock is developing its properties in an economical, intelligent manner in a sincere effort to make it a producing mine don't condemn it because it does not pay a dividend soon as you expected it—mines are made and in the effort to make them the management is entitled to your appreciation and co-operation.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden will save several dollars out of his later income. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by The Modern Pharmacy.

Round Trip for One Fare.

The Southern Pacific railroad has decided to make a rate of one fare for the round trip from Portland to all points in Oregon to as far south as Ashland, for visitors from the East to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, to enable them to look over western Oregon, that they may have an opportunity to locate or invest.

The tickets will be good for 15 days, with stop over privileges. Holders of Exposition round trip tickets from the east can purchase these tickets at this rate, it will depend upon the energy shown by the community as to the number of visitors secured.

CHILD NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE FROM ONE HOUR TO ANOTHER.

BUT CURED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. It five hours I saw a change for the better. We on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by The Modern Pharmacy.

Southern Oregon Chautauqua.

The Southern Oregon Chautauqua Assembly will be held at Ashland, July 12th to 21st inclusive. Reduced rates have been made by the Southern Pacific Co. on the certificate plan, from points on Oregon Lines.

This assembly promises to be of unusual interest. Among the prominent speakers will be Dr. F. W. Gusaulus, Dr. Wm. A. Quayle and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise. Special attention will be given the musical department. The Assembly building has been enlarged to double its former capacity, making ample accommodations for all.

Cheer Up.

Cheer up! The world is taking your photograph. Look pleasant. Of course you have your troubles—troubles you cannot tell the policeman. A whole lot of things bother you of course. Business worries or domestic sorrows, it may be or what not. You find life a rugged road whose stones hurt your feet. Nevertheless, cheer up.

It may be your real disease is selfishness—ingrown selfishness. Your life is too self centered. You imagine your tribulations are worse than others bear. You feel sorry for yourself—the meagrest sort of pity. It is a pathetic illusion. Rid yourself of that, and cheer up.

What right have you to carry a picture of your woe-begone face and funeral ways about your fellows, who have troubles of their own? If you must whine or sulk or scowl, take a car and go to the woods or to the unfrequented lanes.

Cheer up! Your ills are largely imaginary. If you were really on the brink of bankruptcy, or if there were no thoroughfare through your sorrows, you would clear your brows, set your teeth, and make the best of it.

Cheer up! You are making a hypothetical case out of your troubles and suffering from a self-inflicted verdict. You are borrowing trouble and paying a high rate of interest.

Cheer up! Why, man alive, in a ten-minute walk you may see a score of people worse off than you. And here you are digging your own grave, and playing pallbearer into the bargain. Man alive, you must do your work! Smile, even though it be through your tears, which speedily dry. And cheer up!—Young Folks.
