Dr. Oglesby, who has established a real estate and mining office in Portland during the summer, has interested the Danish Ex-Consul, Mr. Larson and Mr. Rathmanson, of Minneapolis in a colonization project for Cottage Grove and those gentlemen will be here on Thursday to look the ground over for that purpose. The purchase of several tracts of ground are being considered and it is stated that if satisfactory arrangements are made that Mr. Rathmanson can locate 25 families here on small tracts of ground, of about 20 acres each before the winter. These people are now located in South Dakota and on account of the severe winters are anxious to change to the Willamette valley. They are sober, industrious farmers, and will not only make good citizens but will help to build up the business interests of the community.

A party of eight surveyors, from San Francisco for the Oregon Eastern railway are registered at the Gross hotel. Just what road they represent and what it is supposed it will run to is a matter that most of Eugene is much interested in.

Dr. E. C. Sanderson, dean of the Eugene Divinity School, was highly honored at the international Christian convention at San Francisco by his election as second vice president of the American Christian Missionary Society, which has over 1,000,000 members. The dean's many friends here and throughout the state are tendering congratulations.

On Same Footing.

The Merchants' Protective association of Eugene has taken a step which it will be well for any league to consider. It is a provision under which no member shall subscribe to any enterprise, such as new churches, country telephone lines, subsidies of any kind, etc., without first submitting the matter to the association. It is stated that this will stop considerable of a depression in the pocketbooks of the members. In every community there are a great many subscription papers circulated of a graft nature, and one merchant signs his name because some other merchant has done so. Under this plan all will be on the same footing.

Declare for Open Shop.

Chicago, Aug. 26. The first definite move on the part of the master printers to declare for an open shop in order to defeat the eight-hour movement, was made at noon today, when one or two non-union men were employed by the 4 largest job offices in Chicago. In all cases the issue was immediately met by the Typographical Union, which called its men out and as a result about 200 union printers are on the strike. At 10 a. m. today open-shop notices were postponed, which read as follows: "On and after this date this composing room will be conducted as open shop. Compositors who wish to continue at work will be expected to do so without regard to union affiliations or to other employes in the shop."

Farmers Take Notice.

The creamery will soon be in operation. You will need a separator. Remember Wynne Hardware Co. handles the Improved Iowa, which is the best Machine on earth.
