Rev. F. E. Billington filled the Christian Church pulpit Sunday morning. A large attendance attended his popularity. After the service Mr. Billington left for Eugene on work connected with his position as State Corresponding Secretary of the Oregon Christian Missionary Society. In the evening Rev. Henry S. Champie, a divinity student from Eugene preached.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon, Sept. 3, at 1 o'clock when Henry S. Champie and Miss Josie A. Tingley were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Tingley, 63 east Ninth street. Rev. J. S. McCallum of the First Christian church officiated. After the ceremony the many relatives and close friends who attended, sat down to a bounteous wedding dinner. The bride and the groom are both popular in Eugene church circles, being active members of the Christian church. The groom is a student of the Divinity school with a promising future as a minister before him. They will reside on east Fourteenth street.—Register.

Another Case of Desertion.

Elizabeth Churchill, of Cottage Grove, has begun a suit in the circuit court against Henry W. Churchill, for divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married in Douglas county, Or., January 16, 1879. Mrs. Churchill alleges that in 1899 her husband wilfully and wrongfully deserted her without provocation. C. M. Kissinger is her attorney.

The Rev. Grant Stewart, who has been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this city since May 1st has been transferred from the Oregon Conference to the Columbia River Conference and is to fill the charge at Pullman, Washington.

As is well known Rev. Stewart exchanged places with Rev. P. L. Moore, and has faithfully filled out the remainder of the year.

During Mr. Stewart's residence here he has made many friends, and is very highly thought of by the members of the church, having rendered able service, not alone to his congregation, but to the public at large.

One feature of his work that has left its impress on the community is the inauguration of new departments of church work, such as the addition to the building for the purpose of a gymnasium, reading room and other features along the lines of an institutional church. Mr. Stewart had in mind the introduction of educational classes, including music, and his work in this direction is very much appreciated.

Rev. Stewart, as pastor of the Pullman church will have in his congregation a large number of young people connected with the State Agricultural University of Washington and is eminently fitted to minister to such a people, as after the completion of his college work he occupied the chair of English and Oratory at Albion college, Michigan, for several years. We anticipate for him success, and our most kind wishes go with him in his new field of labor. He left Tuesday for Portland where he will be joined by his wife.

Mr. Fingal Hinds and wife are spending two weeks in Portland, at the fair.

Mrs. Nellie Simmons returned to her home in Vancouver, after spending a few weeks in the city.

Epworth Forum.

The regular session of the Epworth Forum met in the new League rooms of the Methodist church Monday evening for the first time.

Quite a large company of members and visitors attended and a very unique program was carried out, the main feature being a newspaper which was called "Epworth Chatterbox."

Each department of the paper was well represented by the many able participants. Many jokes and insinuations were gotten off on members in a spirit of well meaning which caused great laughter and applause.

A new program committee was appointed and a splendid time is anticipated in two weeks following.

Family Reunion.

A very successful family reunion was celebrated last week at the residence of C. D. Brown of this city, son-in-law of Mrs. A. I. Todd, the parent of the visiting parties, and her descendants now living number 23 children, 27 grandchildren and 31 great grand children. Four generations were present at the reunion, some of them having come a distance of over four thousand miles.

Among them there were Geo. Ellen Verbeck and her daughter Mrs. Ada Nelson of Wetser, Idaho; Mrs. Cynthia A. Williams of Dilard, Oregon, with her daughter Lora, and grand daughter Maribel, wife and daughter of Dr. W. H. Robinson of this place; Angelus Todd and wife formerly of this place but for the last ten years residents in Cuba; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brown with their son Joshua and daughter Vernie of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Norah E. May with her daughter Clara, and son-in-law Wm. Praine from Liverport, Cal.

A sumptuous dinner was served on Sunday and all sat down to one big table which fairly groaned with the weight of good things and reminiscences of old times and childhood memories were mixed with the various courses of the feast and a happy party has seldom met in this vicinity.

All left during the week returning to their former homes whence they had come to visit their mother.
