J. H. Shurtland called at this office last week and gave us some interesting facts concerning the early history of Cottage Grove. He came to this section of the country August 13, 1851, and looks as hale and hearty as though it had been 71, instead of 51 when he came here.

Proposals will be received at the office of the Second Assistant Post-Master-General, Postoffice Department, Washington, D. C., until 4.30 p. m., Dec. 5, 1905, for carrying the mails of the United States on the routes of the State of Oregon. A list of the different routes can be seen at any postoffice.

We understand that this effects every mail route in Oregon, so there will be a number to figure upon.

but taught school many years planting in youthful minds solid foundation for manly usefulness and good citizenship, and thus qualifying them for active duties of life. He was county surveyor and county assessor. In 1871, he joined the state militia at Grant City, Mo., under Captain J. F. Mason, and thus became a defender of his country in troublous times.

He was married to Mary Jane Denison Nov. 25, 1852. In 1856 they moved to Missouri, where his wife died in 1881.

Mr. Hull was the father of seven children, three girls and four boys, only three of whom survive him, John H. of Oregon, U. S. G. of Washington, and Annie F. Smiddy, of Missouri.

After living in Missouri twenty seven years, Mr. Hull went to Florida and then to Illinois, from where he came to Cottage Grove in 1891, and lived near here until death called him to the unseen world. He died of stomach trouble.

In his younger years, he took a prominent part in political affairs at a time when courage and firmness were needed to maintain right. Inscribed upon his banner were the imperishable principles of freedom, and a united country forever. He was a kind and loving husband, an indulgent father, and an honored and respected neighbor.

In loving remembrance we bid him farewell.

School Board Meeting.

The School board at its meeting this week allowed the following bills, A. Nelson, contract for repairing furnace of West Side school and extra $750; Public School, Printing company, report, books, $7.45.

They also ordered purchased for the supplementary course the following books, at a cost of about $7. Primary plan work, autumn, winter and spring. Nature myths, Kindergarten stories, Poulson's child work, The Story Hour, and the story of Pawatha. These books are to be used in the primary department.

The board has until next July to select the list of books to be purchased as a library for the schools, under the Legislative act creating a library commission to see that this work is carried out in all public schools. If possible it would be a great benefit to have the library earlier.

This week H. M. White and Mr. Thurston, owners of the "Maid of the Mist" on Thompson Creek, 24 miles from Grants Pass, have sold this property to Wright & Hawkins of Colorado, for $15,000. There is a two-foot ledge of free milling pay ore opened up that assays from $10 to $600 to the ton. The developments consist of three tunnels, a shaft having some 700 feet tunnel work done in all. These parties are experienced miners, and have been watching the property for some time. The new owners intend to put on a hoist and a small mill and keep up development.—Grants Pass Journal.

At the Commercial Club meeting Monday night, little business was transacted other than the appointment of a committee to entertain and welcome Mr. Fuller, when he comes Wednesday and to arrange for a special meeting to be held after he returns from the mines at which time both the club and Mr. Fuller will be in a better position to speak on smelter matters. It is desired that a large attendance of members be present at the club Wednesday night to meet Mr. Fuller informally and show him their interest in smelter matters. The reception committee also has the power to appoint some person to accompany Mr. Fuller through the district.

INSOMNIA AND INDIGESTION CURPD.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at nights and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tallamone, Ontario, Canada. Burned to Death.

Herman Hoy Ellison, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison, was burned to death at their home southeast of Cottage Grove, Sept. 14, 1905. The little one was playing in the yard and had gone out side where there was a small bon fire, and thinking to put it out he stomped it as he no doubt had seen others do and this started fresh flames which caught in his dress burning him badly under the arm and it is thought he inhaled the flames as in half an hour the dear little one was dead, before the doctor arrived.

This lovely bud is young and fair Called hence by early doom; Came to show how sweet a flower In paradise would bloom, Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade, Death came with friendly care, The opening bud to heaven conveyed And bade it blossom there.
