The Nugget Office had a small sized wreck, while running off the papers last week, but managed to get the papers off in time in spite of it all. Accidents will happen, but when they do come we have to brace up and pull through it some other way.

Squire Vaughn has just moved his office from its location with Gamewarden Baker to the City hall room, as the previous office was entirely too small when any trials were to be held and caused the other occupants of the office much annoyance. The squire is off by himself the most of the time now.

About twenty hoboes laid up around town Saturday night, and Watchman Green Pitcher had a busy night of it. Word was received of a couple of robberies at Roseburg, and a bank robbery at Marshfield, and it was expected that the men would come through here. Green put in a busy night of it trying to keep track of all of them.

An initiative petition has been prepared for circulation among the voters of the state to amend article 5, section 15, of the state constitution so as to allow the Governor to veto any section or item in a bill passed by the Legislature without voting the entire bill. The proposed amendment is as follows: "If any bill presented to the Governor contain several sections or items, he may object to one or more sections or items while approving other provisions of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the section or sections, item or items, so objected to shall not take effect unless passed over the Governor's objection, as herein before provided."
