FOUR ARE MOURLED.

Wallace Would Save Canal From Needless Red Tape.

Washington, Feb. 6.—John F. Wallace today in the Senate introduced a bill to provide for the proper management of the Panama Canal, and to prevent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to prevent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to pre-

vent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to pre-

vent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to pre-

vent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to pre-

vent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The Senate

today took the first step in the legislation of the Panama Canal, and to pre-

vent its being used for the advancement of the personal fortune of the President of the United States, and for the

benefit of any individual or corporation

in the United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Work was

began today at 9:30 a.m. at the naval

shipyard, the first day of the session of the House of Representatives.

TENNESSEE ON IRREGULAR LAND.