Washington, D. C. Western States will be compelled to face a range-leasing policy in due course of time, if the present domain continues. No such a law famous poem rode eighteen miles of each month will get through the present congress, as the leaders of the two sleeping patriots, and so saved the discussion but it is apparent to observing men that the time is not capped mountains and along dark distant when such will be the case, ravines, traveled only by wild bears and leading stockmen are already preparing for the issue.
