Zazell.
 Madame Zazell whose advertisement appears in this issue is truly a marvelous woman. She was visited by the writer a day or so ago and to say he was dumbfounded is expressing it mildly. Upon entering her departments he found them crowded with a number of our most prominent and influential citizens, awaiting their turn to consult this wonderful woman. When his turn arrived he was ushered into the private office of the palmist, who requested him to be seated at the same time asking him what kind of a reading he desired. After "informing Zazell" he wished an interview in addition to a reading, she graciously informed him that she was at his service for a few moments only, as she was very busy. After a palmist's reading in which she demonstrated that his whole life from the cradle to the present time was an open book to her, she consented to give the following for publication and it is as follows: I was born in Romania of gipsie parents and at the age of three commenced to show phenomenal clairvoyant powers, and people hearing of my wonderful gift came for miles to consult me. I remained at home until I reached the age of eighteen, and practiced my vocation throughout the surrounding country. At that time I received an offer from the government of Belgium to accept the position of councillor in that country which I accepted and held for four years, relinquishing it to visit America, of which I had heard so much. Have been in this country now off and on for twelve years, in the intervals visited Australia, South Africa, England, and Canada reading for such prominent people as Lord Roberts, Lord Kitchener, Mr. Chamberlain, Governor of New Zealand, Sir Wilfred Laines Premier of Canada, Hon. Mr. Jette, Governor of Quebec and others to numerous very influential people of this country, Admiral Dewey and the late Mr. Verker among others. Yes, I like Cottage Grove very much and your people are very nice. Well, you will have to excuse me for the present as you see I am very busy. Come in and see me again. Good afternoon.

TORTURED BY SAVAGES.
 "Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, ofushing Mr. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria, and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by Benson's Pharmacy druggist. Price 50c.

Benjamin Albert Eby.
 Died at the Salem hospital Wednesday the 28th, from the physical shock of the operation he was undergoing.
 Albert was the son of Frank and Emma Eby and was born on June 11, 1892, making him not quite thirteen. He has been a familiar sight to most people here having delivered papers on his wheel until in last June when he fell from his wheel, breaking and cracking the femur bone of his left leg, which was finally healed, but in the meantime the head of the right femur bone became diseased, and was removed a short time ago, this healed and then it was discovered that the left leg had become diseased, and had to be operated on. The boy was cheerful and full of hope, but said to his father he would like to see his mother before the last operation as it might be fatal. He cheerfully bade them all goodby, took the anesthetic and went to sleep to know no more in this world. On operation the bone was found to be completely diseased, so that a section was removed, and shortly after the boy passed away. It may have been a blessing, as he would have been terribly crippled his whole life.

 Conductor Pat Tynan, known at every hamlet on the Southern Pacific from Roseburg to the Rose City, is made the victim of the latest story told by the traveling passenger agents.

Tynan was bringing train 16 north one night recently, and on reaching Cottage Grove early in the morning by a prospective passenger as he alighted en route to the agents office for orders.
 "How long does this train stop here?" inquired the stranger.
 "Two to two to two two," replied Tynan shortly.
 "I didn't ask you to imitate a locomotive's whistle," said the traveler, who thought he was being made the victim of a humorist.
 "You asked me the length of the layover, and I told you," replied the conductor.
 "You merely uttered a succession of toots, and if you call that answering a civil question you are mistaken," was the retort.
 "Well, see for yourself," said the "con," handing the man a folder, and on running down the column he found the train reached the Grove at 1:58 and departed at 2:02 o'clock.—Telegram.

DOCTORS ARE PUZZLED.
 The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McElyer of Vancouver, B. C., is the subject of much talk and to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the throat and congestion of the lungs, three doctors gave me up to die when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and Little's Lung Tonic. It saved my life. Cures the worst Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Lung Trouble, Hoarseness and Laryngitis. Guaranteed at Benson's Pharmacy."

W. S. Duniway of Portland, Republican candidate for State Printer paid the Nugget a call Monday. He is a young, popular and able business man and should be able to conduct the State Printing office at a minimum of expense, and which he promises to do in the following words: The State Printing office costs the state vastly more than it should, because it is exploited in many ways to fatten the State Printer's fees. I shall be content with the legitimate business of the office. I hereby pledge myself to a reduction of the enormous cost of the office, if elected, and I declare upon my honor that I shall seek neither to perpetuate old abuses of the office nor engage in new schemes to loot the treasury. Willis S. Duniway.

 Mahara Bros. Big Minstrel Carnival is booked to appear at the Opera house on Tues. March 13th. For more than twenty years Mahara's has been recognized as the leading Minstrel organization traveling the circuits and during all these years they point to an unbroken record of promises fulfilled. They have never defaulted in the presentation of every advertised feature and in consequence the name of Mahara has become recognized as the accepted synonym for all that is new and entertaining in minstrelsy. This season's program is enhanced by the addition of a number of pretty Creole girls who not only lend realism to the vivid pictures of plantation life in the south but are seen in up to date specialties and ensemble numbers culled from latest N. Y. and Chicago's big musical reviews.
 There was a runaway at Latham Monday afternoon, the team starting right in the town, and coming this way. The engineer on a freight reported that an old man was in the wagon and the wagon tipped over throwing the old man out, then the wagon righted itself and the team ran on towards town. Who the team belonged to, or whether the old man was hurt or not we have not been able to find out.
