ORANGE STATE ITEMS OF INTEREST

COMPLAINT OF GRADING RULING

Oregon Board of Grain Commissioners Has Sustained Judgment Grading Commission's Ruling in Case of R. C. Modafferi v. City of Portland

PORTLAND, March 20 - The Oregon Board of Grain Commissioners has sustained the judgment of the Grading Commission in the case of R. C. Modafferi, plaintiff, v. City of Portland, defendant, and has affirmed the ruling of the Grading Commission in the case of Modafferi v. City of Portland, defendant.

The Grading Commission ruled that the defendant had failed to comply with the grading rules and regulations of the Oregon Board of Grain Commissioners, and that the defendant was therefore liable for damages.

The defendant has appealed the ruling to the Oregon Board of Grain Commissioners, who has now sustained the judgment of the Grading Commission.

CREATED AT LAST

President Roosevelt Signs Bill to Permit Oregonians to Vote in the Senate

Washington, March 20 - President Roosevelt has signed the bill that will permit Oregonians to vote in the Senate.

The bill, which was introduced by Senator William F. Knowland, R-California, was signed by the President today.

The bill will go into effect on January 1, 1935, and will permit Oregonians to vote in the Senate for the first time.

GIFTS ARE ILLEGAL

Refusal of Judge to New York, Illinois, Insurance Investigation

The judge refused to hear the case, stating that he could not do so without violating the law.

JEROME ASKS FOR WARRANTS

If Ires't Was to Defend, Parking Committee Will Meet

Jerome, March 14 - Jerome, Idaho, parking committee will meet if Ires't was to defend.

If Ires't was to defend, parking committee will meet to discuss the matter.

The parking committee will meet if Ires't was to defend.

NEws OF THE WEEK

In a Condensed Form for Our Busy Readers

A Spokane Grain merchant has been seized with the notion that the New Year is the beginning of a new era. He has set out to make the best of it.

A musician has been seized with the notion that the New Year is a time for new beginnings. He has set out to make the best of it.

A lawyer has been seized with the notion that the New Year is a time for new beginnings. He has set out to make the best of it.