IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

OUR TRADE WITH CANADA.

GREAT DAM IS GONE.

WORMEN HAVE NARROW ESCAPE.

North Platte River Years Away Big Ishpeming and Menominee Hardships.

Carpers, Wsy., March 23—The North Platte river has been at its peak for the past week or more. The little drowning woman today lost her life in the North Platte river. The woman was taking a bath in the river, and in the midst of the bath she was struck by a violent current and swept away. The body of the woman was recovered, and the coroner's jury will hold an inquest on the body.

SOME NEW RULES CONDUIT.

What Recent Executive Orders Include. The President's recent executive orders include a number of new rules and regulations. One of the most important of these orders is the establishment of a new department of the Interior. This department is to be headed by a Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who will be responsible for the management of Indian affairs. The department is to have jurisdiction over all matters relating to the purchase of lands by Indians, the use of government lands, the extension of the reservation system, and the general welfare of the Indian population.

THREE GEORGE WASHINGTONS.

Bakersfield, Cal., March 12—There are three George Washingtons in this city. One is the son of the President, the other is the son of a prominent citizen, and the third is the son of a prominent lawyer. The three boys are all students at the same school, and they are all considered to be the finest pupils in the school.

LEER LINED "ALL RIGHT."

One of the most interesting sights of the city is the line of leer "all right." The leer is a long line of leer "all right" that extends from the east end of the city to the west end. The leer is a beautiful sight, and it is a pleasure to see it.

PLAY BILL AT BOSTON HOUSE.

Boston, Mass., March 13—The Boston House has just announced the play bill for the coming season. The bill includes a number of interesting plays, and it is certain to be a success. The principal play on the bill is "The Great Dam," which is to be performed by a company of fine actors.

RHETORIC "THE GERMAN WAY."

New York, March 14—There is a new book on the market that is causing a great deal of talk. The book is "The German Way," and it is written by a well-known author. The book is a study of the German people, and it is a very interesting and instructive book.

IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS.

Washington, March 11—This is the last day of the session of the National Congress. The Congress was adjourned at noon today, and the members will return in the fall to continue their work. The Congress has accomplished a great deal, and it has done much for the nation.

THE STATUS OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

Washington, March 12—The National Congress is in session today. The members are hard at work, and they are considering a number of important bills. There is a great deal of discussion, and there is a great deal of controversy.

IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS.

Washington, March 13—The Congress is in session today, and the members are working hard. There is a great deal of discussion, and there is a great deal of controversy. The members are considering a number of important bills, and they are working hard to pass them.

IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS.

Washington, March 14—The Congress is in session today, and the members are working hard. There is a great deal of discussion, and there is a great deal of controversy. The members are considering a number of important bills, and they are working hard to pass them.

IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS.

Washington, March 15—The Congress is in session today, and the members are working hard. There is a great deal of discussion, and there is a great deal of controversy. The members are considering a number of important bills, and they are working hard to pass them.