MEN WANTED.

At nearly every grocery store on Main street are signs out "Men Wanted" for all kinds of jobs, lumbermen, mill men, farmers, etc. until there is no need of a man saying he can't get work. All he has to do is to ask, and show that he is willing to do work and he can get a good price. This is no lazy man's country. Every man must earn his living and has a chance to have two jobs at any time.

Lumber mills are running short handed, railroad men are in demand for all kinds of construction work and times are on the go. Oregon is the place for activity.

Cottage Grove Always First.

Cottage Grove was the first town to apply for space in the "Made in Oregon" display to be made in Portland's show windows May 19-26. Hurrah for Cottage Grove's Commercial Club, and her prompt work. May the display be in good style, and one to attract.

B. A. Washburne of Springfield is a strong candidate for State Representative and represents a strong and powerful interest. He is one of the younger men that have for several years been wielding an arm of might in the welfare of the county.

There is some little talk around town at the present time to put a two foot tile sewer from the end of the lateral sewer back of the depot across the low ground there, and then across Main Street and under C. C. Case's saloon and down the alley between Main and Platte streets to the main sewer for the purpose of carrying off the surface water that collects along there. This work should be done and with the support that is being given out, it will probably be carried out. The ground back of the depot should be filled up a couple of feet after this is done and made presentable.

The Favorite.

HON. JOHN H. AITKIN OF HUNTINGTON LOOKS LIKE THE WINNER.

Portland, April 17th (Special). As the press voices the sentiment of the people and the republican press of the state seeming practically unanimous in their support of Hon. John H. Aitkin of Huntington for State Treasurer, it would seem "to a man up a tree" that he is in the lead for the position.

It is conceded that Eastern Oregon will give their favorite a splendid vote, his friends and admirers in Western Oregon are working hard and long, they admire his clean out campaign, which is free from personalities and "mud-slinging," the people approve his straightforward, sound platform and will show their approval of it by their votes.

In this city he has made a remarkable campaign, his supporters feel confident of success, as there is quite a sentiment to give the State Treasurer to Eastern Oregon, and Mr. Aitkin looks like the winner.

Prohibitionists Name State Ticket.

Portland, Ore., April 13.—The State Convention of the Prohibition party of Oregon met in this city today and nominated the following officers and candidates for various state offices:

I. H. Amos, chairman of state committee and F. B. Rutherford, secretary of state committee.

For governor: I. H. Amos.

R. Lee Paget, United States senator, long term.

Rev. H. Gould, United States senator, short term.

T. S. McDaniel, secretary of state.

Leslie Butler, state treasurer.

C. J. Bright, supreme judge.

Henry Sheak, superintendent of public instruction.

F. B. Rutherford, attorney general.

A. S. Hawk, state printer.

H. W. Stone, congressman and district.

Edward F. Green, congressman first district.

A. F. Miller, joint state senator, of Clackamas and Multnomah counties.

A. W. Frankhauser, joint state representative, Clackamas and Multnomah counties.

Eugene Saloon Men Beat City Council.

The Eugene City Council raised the saloon license to $500 from $500 last week but before the new rate could go into effect, the saloon men all renewed their licenses for the year at the old rate.

An ordinance forbidding nickel in the slot machines was passed and took effect immediately. This ordinance was passed unanimously, and cuts out all the little machines one sees in confectioners, cigar stands, saloons, etc.

County Commissioner

W. T. Keizer, candidate for County Commissioner from the south end of Lane county went to Eugene on Monday as he had to lay up some political fence. While he is there he will go to Springfield and Wendling and work up a greater interest in his support. Mr. Keizer has for 15 years or more been connected with the business interests of this end of the county and while he stands for a square deal for every part of the county, he of course has an especially tender regard for his home section. The south part of the county should have a representative in the County Commissioners, and Mr. Keizer is a man that certainly would prove an able and just man in such a position and deserves the vote of all citizens of South Lane County, and of the rest of the County.

Candidate for State Printer

At Republican Primary, April 20, 1906

"I hereby pledge myself to a reduction of the enormous cost of the office, if elected and I declare upon my honor that I shall seek neither to perpetuate nor abuses of the office nor engage in new schemes to 'boot the treasury'."—Willis S. Duniway.

Rebuilt Fiat Cars

The O & S E is making very good logging cars out of the bal-last cars it has had for some time. The cars formerly had a 6 foot wheel base but are now being extended to 10 feet and will make a very serviceable car for that purpose. The traffic being developed on the line is taking the capacity of the road daily to handle it.

Veatch Awarded Alumni Medal.

CARRIES HONOR OF BEING BEST DI-BATER.

Eugene Register: John C. Veatch a member of the class of 1907, was last night declared the winner of the Alumni medal which is given by the association for the best individual debater in the university. The question that was debated last night in Villard Hall was the same as was debated in the Oregon-Idaho contest and was participated in by Galloway, Latourette, Veatch, J. B. Dodson, T. B. Dodson and Henry McKinney.

The contest was won last year by C. W. Winslow and the year before by V. W. Tomlinson. Three years ago the Alumni Association resolved upon this scheme to stimulate interest in debate and the giving of the medal has brought out a number of strong debaters in the university who care to try for honors. The judges in last night's contest were: Dr. DeBar, M. H. Arnold and George B. Dorris.

Mr. Veatch is a son of ex-Mayor Veatch of Cottage Grove.

Hawley Will Win

Willis C. Hawley candidate for congress is being widely advertised by his opponents as a crank, a preacher, a prohibitionist, a tool, a dummy, a lunatic, a theorist, a plagiarist, and an enemy of the G. A. R.

His supporters are denounced as sore heads, ringsters, sulkers, grafters, thieves, machine politicians, old political hacks, and members of that dark and mysterious aggregation known as the gum shoe brigade. A few more choice epithets are now being coined for use in the last stages of the campaign.

In the face of certain defeat men often lose their heads, grow desperate, become abusive and forget their better nature. Meantime the hop grower, the rural mail carrier, the G. A. R., the laborer and producer, and all the special interests whose voters are badly wanted are doing their own thinking and refuse to bite a bare hook.

Willis C. Hawley has never been anything but a thoroughbred republican and a clean man. Marion county where he has lived nearly twenty years will give him more than one thousand majority and his nomination is assured.

Bids Invited.

The Farmers' and Miners' Telephone Company invite bids up to noon twelve o'clock of April 28, 1906, for furnishing material and building a telephone line from Cottage Grove to Wildwood. Complete plans and specifications can be found and inspected at the office of the secretary of the company with Messrs Metcalf and Brund, Cottage Grove, Oregon. The company reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

London Briefs.

Mr. Albert Geer and family have arrived from Marble Lake, British Columbia and will take stock and an active part in the operation of the London Mineral Springs in connection with Mr. Levi Geer and Mr. Thomas Geer. The work will be actively carried on and during this season, which the growing demand of the London water is creating. The excellent virtues of this water is asserting its claim up on the admiration of those who use it, to the delight of the stockholders and management of this growing enterprise. Mr. Albert Geer comes to stay, bringing his wife and five children which will add much to our community; thus the list of school children is running up and with bright anticipations is London looking forward to the time in the not far future when a good school will be established and thus complete a change of circumstances which will make London an ideal place for families who wish to reside here.

Thomas M. Gardner has finally succeeded in becoming grandfather and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rice are the happy recipients of a fine daughter. Mrs. Rice is doing nicely, hence the kitchen will be supplied with a helper and the cares and labor of Mrs. Rice will be much lightened.

The Heating plan of the London Hotel will undergo thorough readjustment as 550 feet of piping has been ordered and all fixtures necessary, which will enable their mechanic to put the bathing department of this splendid hotel in first class condition.

The primary election to be held on Friday next must not be neglected as the election laws are very strict. Let us all turn out and represent our interest. A supervisor must be elected. Say Brother Republican why not give Mr. Kayser a lift and thus let the south part of Lane County have one superior something that has not occurred for about twenty years what say you.

VERITAS.

J. M. Shelley of Eugene, one of the State Representative candidates paid us a visit on Tuesday. He is looking after his voters.
