Some rather amusing incidents cropped up in the Primaries. More than one man turned up to vote, and couldn't as he was registered as a Populist, Independent, Socialist, etc., when the only parties voting in the Primaries were Republicans and Democrats. Strange some men can't read enough to understand the election laws, even if they are new.

The bridge gang that has been putting in the pits for the cement piers at the railroad bridges near here left Sunday night for New Era, Oregon and will be gone all summer. Archie Thompson, who is a regular workman of the crew, was exceedingly fortunate in being located here at home when young Miss Thompson came to join the family. He is all broken up at having to go away for the entire summer when they are just beginning to know each other.

The Primary election law has had its first trial, the results of which are yet to be seen. The judges and clerks had a hard time to get down to business as the entire process was new. The books of instructions should have been on hand and studied early enough so that there would be no delay. In spite of all the matter that has been printed and spoken of the laws, hundreds and hundreds of men are unable to understand the peculiarities of the law, and had a hard time to get matters straight. It looks as though the law should work all right and that it would work a great reform in the elections.

Joe Porter is building an addition to his home.

A great many miners have been out looking for jobs the last few days.

Rev. O. L. Fisher and wife, the parents of J. M. Fisher of the Nugget, leave for their Denver home today. Mr. Fisher has not recovered entirely from the stroke of paralysis which he suffered a short time since, and thinks he will be better off at his old home among his life time friends, so goes back there.

Eugene and the north end of Lane County are getting to not only want to be, but are attempting to be, the whole thing in political matters. Cottage Grove only put up one man on the Republican ticket for the primaries, and then had to suffer defeat. Cottage Grove will have to get out and give the rest of the county lessons.

Mr. Wm. Wechter of Salem came in on the belated Thursday noon train, and will go up to the mine on Friday. Mr. Wechter says he is anxious to get to the mine, and get work to progressing more rapidly at the mines. He hopes with the summer to see a great deal of work done in the district, but in their own mines work will be held some what until patents are issued by the government.

Several firms here have received letters from San Francisco houses that they have done business with, saying they are entirely wiped up, and need what money is due them for food and clothing. One instance of a firm that did a big business, and used elaborate stationery, now writes on a blank sheet of paper, by hand, asking if a 60 day bill, just received can be paid at once to help them out. Every merchant has promptly remitted by postoffice order, not by check.

Letters and would be postals are coming in from San Francisco, written on all kinds of scraps of paper, few of them with stamps, being simply marked from San Francisco. The government can skip Red Tape when it has too, all right.

Correspondents for the great newspapers and magazines are going to Panama to write up the conditions, just as they are and consequently great tales are being prepared for our reading. One correspondent must be of the Poltney Bigelow type, judging from the dispatches written before he was within a thousand miles of the canal. Some will write what are facts. Great things are being done, and no doubt the nation's money is being wisely expended in most instances. The work to be done is beyond the comprehension of any of us, and takes vast preparations. Mistakes have been and are being made, which are being rapidly corrected.

The extensive railroad building in the west, together with the irrigation enterprises and new mining, are making a scarcity of labor on the one hand and an abundance of new money for local trade, on the other, which will affect directly the business conditions of the whole west for the next two or three years. Thousands of able men throughout the west have been hampered in their activity for lack of reasonable capital. Their actual worldly possessions were in most cases undeveloped mines or unproductive land and in consequence the initiative in many enterprises had to be taken by eastern men, who had or represented capital. The inflow of money which will come from these vast undertakings, as well as the actual wealth created from the natural resources themselves, will do much towards giving many districts in the west the needed chance for self initiative. The opportunities to create wealth from the unbounded resources of the west are so great that with the men who know them best provided with the instruments for their realization the results will certainly be exceedingly large. The impression is that the whole west is just entering upon a period of unexampled development and prosperity.—Mining World.

New Idea in Furniture Selling.

A firm in Portland has adopted a new feature in conjunction with furniture selling by catalogue. The Gevartz Furniture Co agree to sell all manner of household goods on a very liberal credit and to pay all freight charges to any part of the state, as well. In today's paper they advertise as a special bargain a $60 Sewing Machine for $25; $5 to accompany the order and $3 to be paid monthly—freight prepaid by them. They say that buying direct from the manufacturers in carload lots enables them to do this. The Gevartz Furniture Co have been 30 years in business in Portland and are located at 173-175 First Street. A postal card request will bring you their catalogue. Their ad appears elsewhere.

A. Welch, manager of the Willamette Valley Co. is expected here this week to look over the plant. The work is progressing steadily here after a number of delays. The delay in freight at the present time is very trying. The small boiler is being taken out to make way for the new 100 h. p. boiler, which will soon be installed. The foundation for the big engine is well under way and will soon be completed.

The live rollers for the Brown mill were expected here last week, but did not arrive. When they do come it is the intention to put on a night shift, and get the rolls all installed between Saturday afternoon and Monday morning. The mill is cutting close to 50,000 feet per day and is running smoothly. The two planers are kept busily at work and can hardly handle the work laid out.

All Elections by Primaries.

Springfield, Ill., April 17.—The committee appointed by the Democrats of the Legislature to draw up a primary bill, completed its work late last night, with the exception of the date for holding primaries, and the bill will be presented in the Senate and House when the general assembly meets tomorrow morning.

The Democratic bill provides for the election of all officers, except township and school and district officers, by primary election.

As to cities, towns and villages the question of nominating by primary election is to be left to a referendum vote of the voters of these municipalities. Nominations shall be by a straight plurality vote. All conventions are abolished.

The state platform shall be promulgated by a meeting of nominees for state officers, Congress and the Legislature 15 days after the holding of the primaries.
