Suffered Severely With Headaches—Unable to Work

Miss Lucy V. McGivney, 452 3rd Ave. Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"For many months I suffered severely from headaches and pains in the side and back, sometimes being unable to attend to my daily work.

"I am better now, thanks to Peruna, and am as active as ever and have no more headaches.

"The way Peruna worked in my case was simply marvelous."

We have in our files many grateful letters from women who have suffered with the symptoms named above. Lack of space prevents our giving more than one testimonial here.

It is impossible even to approximate the great amount of suffering which Peruna has relieved, or the number of women who have been restored to health and strength by its faithful use.

LEGAL PROVERBS OF CHINESE.

They Appear to Have One to Fit Every Case.

Native proverbs relating to legal affairs divide themselves roughly into three classes—first, those more or less common to all people, and dealing with that "once bitten twice shy" sort of wisdom which leads a man to put up with evils rather than go to law. Such, for example, are the following:

If one family has a lawsuit ten families are involved in calamity.

If but one word of information against a man gets into the Court nine bullocks cannot drag it out again.

Let householders avoid litigation, for once go to law and there is nothing but trouble.

Win your lawsuit and lose your money.

Instances of this kind might be multiplied. But we must pass on to the second class—those referring specially to the mandarins; and here it may be said that though the majority of the proverbial sayings are not complimentary, there are a few to bear witness to the good that a good man may do even in an official capacity, while others give pointed advice—e. g. "Never beat if you must fine; if you do, all fines decline." Most, however, as is natural, deal with the seamy side. The following are a few specimens:

No punishment on the bench, no law below it.

Deceive, but don't insult a mandarin.

Men's hearts are like iron, and the rule of the mandarins like a furnace.

Even an honest Chih-fulmay, during the three years' term of office, saves 10 myriad snow-white tales of silver.

Before he comes into office he reproves a thousand faults; after he comes into office he commits the same himself.

Quickly pay your taxes, even if he should empty your purse; then you will be most happy.

Wishing to criminate, no difficulty will be met in finding a pretext.

With only right to back you, sure the yamens lack you.

Yamens are deep as the sea; and their corruptions lofty as heaven.

In life beware of yamens; in death beware of hell.—North China Herald.

Spendthrifts of the West.

If Horace Greeley were alive to-day I doubt if he would still give to young men the unqualified advice to go west and grow up with the country, says a Californian. The west is still a good place to make money, but not a good place to get rich. I believe a man can build up a competence more easily in the east than he can in the land beyond the Missouri River. It is too much a case of "easy comes, easy goes." Californians are the most extravagant persons in the world. San Francisco is the most extravagant city in the world. Young men find it easy to make money there and they find it still more easy to spend it. As a result they are inclined to waste early opportunities.

There are still a number of good placer mines in the foothills not far from Stockton. While I was out there last summer I met a young chap who was working a claim and making good money out of it. His luck attracted buyers and he sold out for $37,000. He took the first train for San Francisco, and I saw him when he came back, six weeks later, without a penny. He even had to sell part of his clothes to get together another mining kit. He hadn't the slightest regret over the manner in which he had blown his money, for he was still talking of the fun he would have with the next "stake." His case is merely an average one, but if he had lived in the east he might not have made so much money, but he would have kept most of it.

Special Favors for Drummers.

Traveling men in England have special treatment accorded them in hotels, says a returned American. When you go into the lobby of an English hotel you may be surprised to find a great open fire burning in one end of the room. Great comfortable chairs will be found about the lobby and you need not exclaim if you see several salesmen smoking long pipes and reposing their stockinged feet upon large footstools. Empty shoes can be found in many portions of the room.

The English lobby is a parlor or sitting room, a place of comfort, and in no instance bears the stiff, varnished emblazoned appearance of your American hostelries. When you go to the dining room you may be surprised to hear the clerk ask if you are a traveling man. If you are you are ushered into a simply but homely furnished room containing one long table. The apartment is more like a private dining room, and everybody is everybody else's friend. The meal is especially served, the waiters show especial deference and everything bears a tone of home life. As each man leaves the table he is seen to drop a half penny in a little box. This is an unwritten law of the land, and the money thus collected goes to pay for schools and orphanages for the children of traveling salesmen who die without leaving sufficient means for their support. Several of these schools and orphanages are maintained throughout England.

Mrs. Schoppen—I want five pounds of sugar, please.

Grocer—Yes'm; anything else?

Mrs. Schoppen—No, that's all; I'll take it with me if it isn't too heavy a package.

Grocer—Oh, it'll only weigh three or four pounds, madam.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Nearly every man has a fool idea he wastes a lot of time on.

SKIN DISEASES

ACNE, TETTER, ECZEMA, PSORIASIS, SALT RHEUM.

There is nothing more distressing than an itching, burning skin disease, and upon the return of warm weather those who are afflicted with skin troubles find the symptoms appearing and know that they will be tormented through the hot summer months. The blood is heated with humors and acrid matter, and as they are forced to the surface the skin seems to be on fire. The treatment of skin diseases with external applications is all wrong, because they do not reach the trouble which is in the blood. The most such treatment can be expected to do is, allay the itching and burning and cover up the trouble for awhile, but as soon as it is left off the disease returns.

All food taken into the body contains, in some form, the elements necessary to sustain the different parts. One portion is used for the making of blood, another for muscle, one for bone, still another for fat, and so on. After these different properties are extracted from the food there still remains a portion that is useless, or waste matter, which is intended to be disposed of through the natural channels of bodily waste, the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. At this season of the year, however, these organs become torpid, dull and sluggish, and fail to perform this duty, and these accumulations remain in the system and are absorbed by the blood to ferment and sour, producing burning acids and acrid humors. The blood cannot properly nourish the system while in this impure condition, and begins to throw off these acids through the pores and glands of the skin, producing Acne, Eczema, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and skin diseases of every description.

THE ITCHING WAS ALMOST UNBEARABLE.

Dear Sirs—My body broke out with a rash or eruption which in spite of all efforts to cure continued to get worse. The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible, it would almost disappear at times, only to return worse than ever. I had tried many highly recommended preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. S. determined to give it a fair trial, and was inexpressibly delighted when a few bottles cured me entirely, removing every blemish and pimple from my body. I shall not fail to recommend S. S. S. whenever an opportunity occurs to do so.
Escondido, Cal L. MARNO.

ECZEMA appears usually with a slight redness of the skin, followed by pustules from which there flows a sticky fluid that dries and forms a crust, and the itching is intense. It is generally on the back, breast, arms, legs and face, though other parts of the body may be afflicted. In TETTER the skin dries, cracks and bleeds, and is often very painful. The acid in the blood dries up the natural oils of the skin, causing a dry, feverish, hardened condition and giving it a leathery appearance. ACNE makes its appearance on the face in the form of pimples and black-heads, and is particularly disagreeable because of its unsightly appearance, while PSORIASIS, a scaly disease, comes in patches on different parts of the body. One of the worst forms of skin disease is SALT RHEUM. It discharges a watery fluid, forming sores and producing intense itching. The head and face are the parts usually affected, and sometimes the hair falls out and a mass of sores forms on the scalp.

These and all skin diseases are due to the same cause—burning acids and humors in the blood, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and made pure they will continue. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy that is purely vegetable, being made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, and acts directly on the blood with a cleansing, healing effect. It neutralizes the acids and purifies the blood so that the skin, instead of being blistered and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourished by a supply of cooling, healthy blood. It goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of waste or foreign matter, builds up the blood and cures all skin diseases promptly and permanently. S. S. S. does not leave the least particle of the poison for future outbreaks, but entirely rids the blood of the cause for all skin diseases.

SSS

S. S. S. tones up the system and regulates the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels so that they will carry off the natural waste and refuse matter through the proper channels, instead of leaving it to be absorbed by the blood. Nothing equals S. S. S. in the treatment of these troubles and for building up the general health. Write for our treatise on skin diseases and any medical advice you wish. We make no charge for either.

A Friend in Need—

THAT thin, little, 10-cent Box of Cascarets.

When carried constantly in your Vest Pocket, or in "my Lady's" Purse it will ward off ninety per cent of Life's ordinary Ills.

Eat one of the six candy tablets contained in that "Vest Pocket Box" whenever you suspect you need one.

It can't hurt you, and is sure Insurance against serious sickness.

Want of Exercise, indoor Employment, weaken the Bowel Muscles, just as they weaken Arm and Leg Muscles.

The Muscles lose tone, tension, strength, to force the food onward.

And the longer they stay in that state the weaker they become, because the less exercise they get through the slow passage of food.

Cascarets contain the only combination of drugs that acts on the Muscles of the Bowels and Intestines, just as Cold Water, or Exercise, act on a Lazy man.

They act like Exercise.

* * *

When you have Heartburn, Colic, Coated Tongue, Suspected Breath, Acid-rising-in-throat, Gas-belching, or an Incipient Cold, take a Cascaret.

Remember, all these are not merely Discomforts, but Indications of a serious Cause.

Nip them in the bud—eat a Candy Cascaret. Cascarets don't purge, nor punish the stomach like "Bile-driving" "Physics."

They act like Exercise on the Bowel-Muscles that propel Food, and that squeeze the natural Digestive Juices of the body into Food.

Cascarets ward off, or cure, the following diseases:

Constipation	Bad Breath
Biliousness	Diabetes
Indigestion	Headache
Dyspepsia	Diarrhœa
Torpid Liver	Flatulence
Appendicitis	Hives
Rheumatism	Jaundice
Catarrh	Nausea
Colic	Vertigo
Scrofula	Pimples
Womanly Troubles
Worms	Blotches
Piles	Eczema
Ulcers	Dysentery

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

* * *

A coming Headache can be warded off in short order, by a single Cascaret, and the cause removed.

Heartburn, Gas-belching, Acid-risings in the throat, and Colicky feeling are sure signs of bowel trouble from food poisons, and should be dealt with promptly.

One Cascaret will stop the coming trouble, and move on the Bowel load, if taken at the first signs.

Don't fail to carry the Vest Pocket Box of Cascarets with you constantly.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."
