IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

Friday, May 1.

Washington, D. C.—The amendments to the civil-service bill under the consideration of the House yesterday were disposed of, the bill passing with the approval of both Houses, but the same having been rejected by the President, it was again referred to the Senate. The bill has been referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments. The amendments are expected to be approved by the House and the bill passed to the Senate for final action.

Monday, May 5.

Washington, May 5.—In the House yesterday, Mr. Allison submitted an amendment to the civil-service bill which the House rejected by a vote of 111 to 118. The amendment was proposed to facilitate the appointment of persons to the civil-service positions in the government.

Tuesday, May 6.

Washington, May 6.—The civil-service bill was again referred to the Senate, where it was recommitted to the Committee on the Judiciary. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments, but it was not passed.

Wednesday, May 7.

Washington, May 7.—The Senate adjourned yesterday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments. The bill was passed by a vote of 41 to 21.

Thursday, May 8.

Washington, May 8.—The House passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 197 to 51. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Friday, May 9.

Washington, May 9.—The Senate approved the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Saturday, May 10.

Washington, May 10.—The House adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Sunday, May 11.

Washington, May 11.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Monday, May 12.

Washington, May 12.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Tuesday, May 13.

Washington, May 13.—The House passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 197 to 51. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Wednesday, May 14.

Washington, May 14.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Thursday, May 15.

Washington, May 15.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Friday, May 16.

Washington, May 16.—The House adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Saturday, May 17.

Washington, May 17.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Sunday, May 18.

Washington, May 18.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Monday, May 19.

Washington, May 19.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Tuesday, May 20.

Washington, May 20.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Wednesday, May 21.

Washington, May 21.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Thursday, May 22.

Washington, May 22.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Friday, May 23.

Washington, May 23.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Saturday, May 24.

Washington, May 24.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Sunday, May 25.

Washington, May 25.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Washington, May 26.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Tuesday, May 27.

Washington, May 27.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Wednesday, May 28.

Washington, May 28.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Thursday, May 29.

Washington, May 29.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Friday, May 30.

Washington, May 30.—The Senate passed the civil-service bill yesterday by a vote of 41 to 21. The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.

Saturday, May 31.

Washington, May 31.—The Senate adjourned until Monday to consider the civil-service bill, and the bill was referred to a committee of the whole house to consider the Senate amendments.