Solomon Alspaugh.

Solomon Alspaugh, father of Mrs. J. D. Coffman of this city, died at her home Friday morning at ten o'clock from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Alspaugh was born in Ohio 76 years ago, and lived most of his life at Cowgill, Missouri, but for the past two years and one half has lived here. He has always been a strong rugged man, and was only sick three days when he died. His wife died four years ago in January and was buried at the old home place in Missouri, to which point his body was taken by his eldest son A. P. Alspaugh to be laid by her. At the last services here were his two sons, Mr. A. P. Alspaugh of Cowgill, Mo., who came as soon as he heard of his father's sickness, but arrived too late to see him alive, his son H. O. Alspaugh of Eugene, and Mrs. J. D. Coffman of this city. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Masons, of which order he had long been a member.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn infirmity, 'Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day,' is now generally recognized in this form: 'Do it to-day!' That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.
