IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

Saturday, May 10.

Washington, D.C., May 9. The Senate this evening after a long and laborious session adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The result of the day's proceedings was a defeat of the bill to regulate the making of评级 rate in an expedited manner. The bill was read a second time without comment and was passed by a vote of 52 to 41. The Senate then adjourned.

John C. Calhoun, a senator from South Carolina, was among those who voted against the bill. Calhoun said he did not believe the bill was necessary and that it would be detrimental to the interests of the people.

Washington, D.C., May 9. Senate debate on the bill to regulate the making of评级 rate ended today with the adoption of an amendment proposed by Senator John C. Calhoun. The amendment requires the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Senate on the progress of the investigation made by him.

The Senate then adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Non-Disclosure Act:

Memorialists, led by former Secretary of the Treasury John C. Calhoun, were among those who presented a memorial to the Senate yesterday requesting that certain information be kept secret. The memorialists said they were concerned about the potential for disclosure of sensitive information that could be harmful to the national security.

The Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Library of Congress:

A bill to establish the Library of Congress was introduced in the Senate today. The bill, introduced by Senator John C. Calhoun, would provide funds for the construction of a new, larger library building. It would also provide for the appointment of a director and staff to manage the library.

The Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

After Standard Oil

Witnesses to Give Details of Bribery of Railroad Men.

Washington, D.C., May 10. Testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday subjected the Standard Oil Company to sharp criticism. The commission, which is investigating the company's operations, heard testimony that the company had engaged in a scheme to bribe railroad men in order to gain an advantage in the transportation of its products.

The testimony was given by several witnesses, including former railroad executives and transportation experts. They said that the company had offered bribes to railroad officials in return for favorable treatment in the handling of its products.

The commission adjourned for the day.

MAY TRY MARGER FOR PEJURY

Testified Before Interstate Commerce Commission.

Chicago, May 10. The government has a red in pocket for the Standard Oil Company in the investigation of railroad bribery, and other matters in which the company's interests are involved. The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday heard testimony from a number of witnesses who alleged that the company had engaged in a fraudulent scheme to bribe railroad officials in order to gain an advantage in the transportation of its products.

The witnesses included former railroad executives and transportation experts who said that the company had offered bribes to railroad officials in return for favorable treatment in the handling of its products.

The commission adjourned for the day.

CLIFF HOUSE EASE

Drunken Manners, Though Reclosed, Continue.

San Francisco, May 10. In the case of the United States against James E. Reed, a former owner of the Cliff House, a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury yesterday. The case involved a charge of fraudulently inducing another person to purchase a lease of the Cliff House.

The jury was instructed by the trial judge to return a verdict of guilty or not guilty. The defense argued that the accused did not intends to defraud anyone, but the jury found him guilty.

The verdict was accepted by the court, and the accused was ordered to appear in court at a later date.

MAN A PIECE OF MACHINERY

Maker of Motor Rigs for Germans

Massey of Motor Rigs for Germans

New York, May 10. Mr. Massey, a maker of motor rigs for the German government, has been arrested on a charge of fraud. The government has alleged that he charged the government for work that was never performed.

The case has been referred to a special court, and the accused will be tried there.

The trial will be held in a special court, and the accused will be tried there.