The High School

Wishes of the Board. Hugh Clunies does not wish to leave his seat in the High School seats are open for the present, though the student is asked to keep her face straight during the operation. Agnes Wroth wishes that some-thing long and strong will support her, while she is keeping the class in- terest on the evening of May 2.

Charles Hall wishes to see more of the students in the dresses. "A flag will stay away from the school." The prefect wishes that the school would last forever so that she could work her saw better when she needs to talk.

Milo Colman wishes that every day was Sunday so that she would not have to go to school.

It was a most—never wind little boy's words.

EXAMINEES are to begin the test of their attainments, but let them not forget the next one.
