IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

Saturday, May 18

Washington, May 18.—The House decided to go into session at once to hear the report of its Committee on Appropriations concerning the $100,000,000 asked for by the President for the maintenance of the national government, including salaries. The measure was adopted by the unanimous vote of the House. It was adopted after a debate of several hours, with the presentation of a number of amendments, all of which were rejected. The work of the council also includes the consideration of the budget for the next fiscal year, as well as the appropriations for the various departments of the government. The bill originated in the House, where it was reported by Chairman Johnson. The importance of the measure was recognized by the members, and there was no opposition to the raising of the general level of relief among the people.

Tuesday, May 18

Washington, May 18.—Mr. W. W. H. Dawson, a member of the House of Commons, gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the relief of the unemployed. The measure was considered by the members, and there was no opposition to the raising of the general level of relief among the people.

Wednesday, May 18

Washington, May 18.—The House decided to go into session at once to hear the report of its Committee on Appropriations concerning the $100,000,000 asked for by the President for the maintenance of the national government, including salaries. The measure was adopted by the unanimous vote of the House. It was adopted after a debate of several hours, with the presentation of a number of amendments, all of which were rejected. The work of the council also includes the consideration of the budget for the next fiscal year, as well as the appropriations for the various departments of the government. The bill originated in the House, where it was reported by Chairman Johnson. The importance of the measure was recognized by the members, and there was no opposition to the raising of the general level of relief among the people.