Strawberries are just beginning to reach their best in the gardens here and the gardeners are sending in some very fine boxes of berries for sale. The berries are unusually large and are very sweet. The rain of the last few days has been rather hard on them but will probably not damage the crop very much.

Mrs. Frank Crabtree died at 10 o'clock Saturday night, May 19th at her home six miles east of Cottage Grove. She had been an invalid for some four or five months and had borne her trials nobly, in patience and in resignation. She leaves of her own kindred two brothers and sisters, and of her own family, her husband, three sons and a daughter, who grieve in the loss of so kind a mother, whose thoughtful, christian care made the world so much better for them. Her sister, Mrs. Dougherty of California, has been attending her for two or three months. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Barnhardt, who made a splendid eulogy of her life, and pointed out the comfort that the family and friends have in the thought of her womanly Christian life. Her death has left a great void in the family, and aching hearts to mourn, but she has gone to sleep to waken in that better land.

The lath mill of the Brown Lumber Co. mill has been shut down for some time on account of the poor condition of the lath market. Whenever the price of lath rises to a fair figure the mill will be started agsin. The price of first grade lumber is not raising in value at the present time, but it is the timbers, and dimension lumber that there is such a great demand for, and which is consequentl rising in value so at the present time.

In the making of barbed wire four coils of wire on reels are placed behind the barbing machine. The wire from two of the reels serves to form the strands, while that from the other two, are led between a pair of friction wheels and pulled to a proper tension and then crossed by the other two transversely, one on each side. At fixed intervals of a few inches, according to the desired spacing of the barbs, the two barb wires are caught by a pair of revolving fingers and twisted around one of the strand wires and at the conclusion of the twist two pairs of shears cut the ends of the barbs diagonally into sharp points. The wires then pass into a combined winding and twisting machine by which the two strand wires are twisted around each other and then to the spool where it is wound up ready for the market.

Governor Chamberlain Speaks to a Large Crowd

R. M. Veatch introduced him with a very neat speech. The Governor spoke rapidly and well, taking out the points of his administration, which were especially worthy of consideration. He spoke of the condition of the land office when he was appointed, the results of the investigation and the saving of money to the state, and the increasing of the school fund. He also took up the Initiative and Referendum, and asserted that he had always upheld it. He cited instances of what he had tried to save for the people and the condition he had met. His speech called forth much applause from a large audience, and excited much merriment when he told of how he beat some of the grafters.

After his speech he was taken to Eugene in a carriage.

L. P. Fawver Killed in Mohawk Mill

L. P. Fawver, employed at the Mohawk Lumber Company's mill Donna station, was accidentally killed yesterday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock. He was working on the triumer when his clothing caught on a rapidly revolving shaft and he was whirled around the shaft a number of times. The clothing finally gave way and when he fell to the floor he was dead. Every effort was made to revive him, but in vain. No bones were broken and but few bruises shown on the body, death resulting from internal injuries.

Mr. Fawver was aged about 53 years and was a well known resident of the Mohawk valley. He leaves the following children: Mrs. Henry Gibbs of Eugene, Mrs. Lucy Steuben of Marcola; Sam Fawver of Harrisburg; Maude, Edith, Archie and Sylvia Fawver of Donna.

The deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World, holding insurance in that order. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock and the remains interred in the Baxter cemetery—Saturday's Register.

Take Four Months Vacation

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Macy left Tuesday for his fathers home where he will spend two months of the summer and the other two he expects to spend at the sea coast or in the mountains. Dr. Macy has found it pays to take a good rest each summer and early in the summer starts on his vacation. His patients are very kind and generally wait until his return to have their eating apparatus adjusted. He says even if he does go away he will be back next Monday to vote in favor of Womens Suffrage.

Eugene Elks Hold Carnival

The program of the Elks big social for May 28th, was quite a wonder, and closed with the announcement that the Cottage Grove contingent consisting of Messrs. Lurch, Brand, Case, Snodgrass, Oglesby and Landess have extended a cordial invitation to the entire lodge to a banquet at Cottage Grove when the local is extended here. They won't need to use boiled water when they get here.

Gamewarden Baker Will Time Candidates

Gamewarden Baker is the recipient of a very fine stop watch from a friend in the East. He says he hopes to have plenty of chance to use the watch, and thinks it may come handy in keeping time on some of the candidates. Mr. Baker is so interested right now in the political race that he has to forego the pleasure of attending the National Convention of Gamewardens at Buffalo, New York, the first week of June, but as soon as the election is over he is going to start for his birthplace, Kentucky, to attend the great re-union of all the Blue Grass people.

Cottage Grove Convention in November

At the North Bend meeting of the Willamette Valley Development League decided to hold its September meeting in Forest Grove, and the November meeting at Cottage Grove.
