

BOHEMIA MINING NOTES

And General Mining News Gathered from Exchanges.

Raub Thom, Clarence Thom and John Lindquest were passengers to Bohemia via Sharps' Creek stage this morning.

The Blue Ledge Copper mine has been bonded by Robert S. Towne and a large smelter will be built on the ground of the Seattle mine, located on the Applegate, says the Mining World.

John Graber went to Creswell yesterday to visit his old time mining partner, Albert Zimker. Albert has a fine farm and the two chums will eat cherries from the same cherry tree.

In speaking of Oregon mining, the Mining World states that a big gold strike was made recently four miles due east of the Blue Ledge mine on Dutch creek, a tributary of Elliott creek. The strike consisted of a dyke 700 to 800 feet wide, trending north and south, of a sort of a "soapy" green stone containing gold sulphides. Numerous assays of the material show the values to be not less than $3, and as high as $25 gold per ton. A location made on the dyke two miles south of the original location gives an average of $23 gold per ton.

A carload of machinery has been received at the Millionaire mine, near Gold Hill. In the car was a 75-horsepower Leyner air compressor, an electric hoist and cage and two Truax ore cars. The air compressor is the largest in this section and the Millionaire will be the only mine equipped with a steel cage. The new machinery is now being installed.

Boys Land

John Lindquest, a miner, after working several months at the Riverside mine in Bohemia went to Coos Bay last week and purchased a fine piece of land of J. S. Brund. The land is bordering on the river and is close to Florence, partly covered with heavy timber, there are several acres cleared in all. Mr. Lindquist is very much pleased with his investment.

Vesuvius Mine

F. J. Hard returned to the Grove Monday after a trip to the Vesuvius mine, he reports the roads improving, snow all gone and a general good feeling all around. The poles all set for the new telephone line as far as the Red Bridge, when asked about the Vesuvius he stated that the new ore bodies were proving up in splendid shape and he was more enthused than ever with the prospects of the Vesuvius being a large and continuous producer very soon. Mr. Hard also said that he expected the ore from the old workings would be milled for some time before starting to sack ore from the latest discoveries.

New Sawmill Contemplated

A party of sawmill men are figuring on a deal with J. I. Jones for his mill site and his timber interests. It is to be hoped that the deal will be completed as the men will put in a large plant and will make a valuable addition to the business of the town, if they locate here.

Local Duties Case Undecided

The argument in the local option case was completed before Judge Harrison Eugene on Saturday evening but he took it under advisement and will render a decision soon. The point at issue is a technicality of the law, as to whether a city may have power over state laws. In general cases of law the federal laws are first, state second and city last, and whether in this case that will rule or not is yet to be seen.

Union of Eugene Presbyterian Churches Consummated

Friday marked the union of the First Presbyterian and the Cumberland Presbyterian churches of Eugene. Each church had been granted permission by its respective presbytery to merge under the name of the Central Presbyterian Church. Rev. H. N. Mount, Moderator called the pastors of the two churches together and made a prayer completing the union. Rev. R. C. Graet, moderator of the Cumberland presbytery, introduced the ministers of his denomination one by one, calling each in the order of his years of service as a pastor. Rev. C. A. Wooley, 47 years; Rev. C. H. Wallace, 44 years; Rev. B. F. Totten of Corvallis; Rev. J. A. Burgess of Saginaw; Rev. S. B. Moses of Cottage Grove and Luther White of Brownsville. In his talk introducing the ministers, when he came to himself Rev. Mr. Graet said that he was not most wonderful grace, nor amazing grace nor (he hoped) a disgrace, but a sinner saved by the Grace of the Lord Jesus.

Fresh fruit is beginning to be more plentiful in the local markets, peaches, plums, etc. are now in and more are coming.

PRETTY JUNE WEDDING

Marriage Ceremony Sunday Night Unites Two Popular Young Folks

Mr. Charles S. Cochran, who for these many years has been directing and leading brass bands all up and down the country and who has headed many a proud procession, assumed the leadership and headed the prettiest and proudest procession of his whole career, at the commodious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones, on Wall Street West Cottage Grove, last Sunday evening June 24th, 1906, when he led to hymen's altar Miss Elizabeth Ella Orpurd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Orpurd of this city. The parlors of the Jones' home were beautifully decorated with ivy myrtle and ferns and large bouquets of variegated tea roses were much in evidence. The bridal altar was arranged at one end of the north parlor in front of a great bank of ivy and ferns, over which were hung great streamers of evergreens. Promptly at 9:30 o'clock p. m. Miss Neva Perkins, presiding at the piano, played the wedding march which ushered the bridal party into the presence of the many guests and the officiating clergyman. The bridal party was headed by little Marie Jones and Nets Compton, flower girls, who scattered roses as the procession proceeded. They were followed by the bride and her maid, Miss Gertrude Palmer, the groom being attended by Mr. M. H. Anderson. The impressive ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. S. E. Meminger of the M. E. Church, who officiated in a very pleasing manner. The bride carried a bouquet of cream roses and looked charming in a pretty wedding gown of cream India silk trimmed in Oriental lace and accordion pleating. The bride's maid was gowned in white silk organdie, while the groom and groomsmen wore the conventional black. After the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. The bridal party and guests were served with light refreshments.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Orpurd and is a very winsome and charming young lady. The groom was born and raised to manhood in this community and for a number of years has been prominent in musical circles, he having a wide reputation as a cornet soloist and band director. He was a member of one of Uncle Sam's regimental bands which went through the Cuban campaign and at the close of the war he went to New York and Chicago where he took instructions as the cornet under the best teachers. At present Mr. Cochran is associated with W. C. Conner in the Cottage Grove notion and novelty store known as "The Bazaar" and is also director of the F. of A. band and the new Ladies band. The bride and groom are both popular favorites and have a host of admiring friends who unite with the Nugget in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. LOCAL WILL START SOON

S. P. Has Issued Orders for Extension of Local to Cottage Grove.

The S. P. has decided that it will pay to extend the Eugene local to Cottage Grove, making this the terminus, and are making preparations to start the service very soon. Supt. Baird was here on Monday setting the stakes for the erection of the new turntable, which will be necessary and the rails and switch for the spur are already on hand. The crew arrived Monday and the work will be pushed right along.

It is reported that the turntable at Divide is worn to a point where it must be rebuilt or moved and the heavier trains are now being put on the trains need the helper from here, and it is probable that the roundhouse will be moved and this point become the starting place for the helpers instead of Divide. With the turntable here for the local, such a change would be easier.

All these changes will help Cottage Grove and she certainly has reason to be thankful to the S. P. for thus taking care of her interests. Cottage Grove's freight business is growing fast and the Southern Pacific appreciates this fact and will treat her accordingly. With all the sawmills running around Cottage Grove it is no wonder that the freight business is picking up.

Their Own King Once Again Rules Over Them

Ties World's Record.

Dan Kelly, the University of Oregon athlete, also a member of the Multnomah Club of Portland tied the world's record in a 100-yard dash, at the P. N. A. A. meet in Spokane, making the time of 9 3/5 seconds, and broke the Pacific northwest record of ten seconds.

Breaks Left Arm.

Edd Addison working under Road Supervisor Curtis Vestch building road at Lorane on Saturday was driving of team of horses hitched to a big triangular scraper on which he was riding when the scraper hit a stump and he turned his horses around and in dragging the scraper around they overturned it throwing it on top of him so that he fell flat on his stomach and the edge of the scraper struck his left arm just above the wrist and broke both bones. He was attended by Dr. Job, then was taken to his home where his injuries were dressed. Mrs. Addison was in a delicate condition and the shock of Mr. Addison's accident was severe upon her, resulting in the birth of a fine 6 pound baby girl somewhat unexpectedly.

J. B. Rouse is engaging a number of teams to haul lumber to the railroad. The mill has been running steadily and has a large quantity of lumber piled up ready for shipment.

The brick work of the new bank building is going up very rapidly and the contractors expect to hurry their work from now on if the weather does not interfere.

The Berean Band and the Christian Endeavor joined together in their delayed ice cream social Monday night. The weather was not quite all that could be desired but the young folks did well and raised quite a sum for the organ fund.
