WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The House adjourned this evening without taking any action on the resolutions of the House of Representatives, which were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration. The resolutions, which were introduced by Mr. Cannon, relate to the creation of a new congress. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means for consideration.