OCEAN STATE ITEMS OF INTEREST

PAY OF TEACHERS.

Raising Highest Salaries Now in Oregon

Sales - Salaries of public school teachers have been raised to an average in Oregon this year, which is reported to be a step in the right direction. The new scale, which varies from $1,000 to $2,000 per year for the smaller schools, is expected to be increased next year.

Farmers are independent.

CAN SELL THEIR WOOL.

Farmers in Oregon have been independent of brokers and middlemen. They sell their wool directly to the buyers and get a fair price for it.

FOR SALE.

Kansas - A refrigerator for sale in Kansas City, Missouri. Price $500.

OREGON RANGE FREE.

Grazing Law Is Declared To Be Unenforceable.

Sales - The grazing law in Oregon has been declared to be unenforceable by the Supreme Court of the state. The law was passed in 1873 and has been in effect ever since.

REELS ARE GAINING.

Cottons Taken for Security.

Havana, Aug. 5- The Havana government has taken cotton for the security of its loans.

Sahlings.

New sales of cotton are being made in the southern states, where the crop is expected to reach a record high.

Prices go Soaring.

Increase In Pay Little Benefit to San Francisco Workmen.

RENTS ALMOST OUT OF REACH.

San Francisco, July 2 - Two months ago rents in San Francisco were high, but they have now gone up to almost the point of unaffordability. The average rent for a three-room apartment is now $300 per month.

The populairty for rent control is increasing, and the rent increase by the way, was about 20 per cent.

In this way, the city of San Francisco is being taken over by the landlords and their tenants are forced to pay more for rent.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

DEFECTS IN BIG WARSIP.

Wrecked Mortgages and Great Bankruptcies

London, Sept. 1 - Statements have been made that the state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.

The state of California is in a critical position, and the tenants are being forced to pay more for rent than ever before.