RUSIAN CAMPAIGN BEGUN.

Sherman in Teppoff's Gorge.

The Russian government has decided to open the winter campaign. The advance of the 2nd Army under General Teppoff, has been announced.

The 2nd Army consists of 120,000 men, and is commanded by General Teppoff. It was formed on the Wall in the autumn.

The Russians have decided to open the campaign in order to strike while the iron is hot. The 2nd Army is well supplied with provision and ammunition, and is in good condition.

The campaign will be opened by an attack on the 1st Army, which is commanded by General Kutuzov. The attack will be made in the direction of Moscow.

The 2nd Army will be supported by the 3rd Army, which is commanded by General Bagration. The 3rd Army is composed of 100,000 men, and is well supplied with provision and ammunition.

The campaign will be well conducted, and the Russian government hopes to make a successful campaign this year.

TESTIMONY IN SHIELD.

Intelligence Committee Turns Down Pacific Coast Lumbermen.

A bill for the protection of the lumbermen of the Pacific Coast has been turned down by the Intelligence Committee.

The bill was introduced by Senator Brown, who represents the lumbermen of the Pacific Coast. It was supported by the lumbermen of the Pacific Coast, who declared that they were unable to get proper protection under the present system.

However, the bill was turned down by the Intelligence Committee, who declared that they were unable to pass the bill without the consent of the lumbermen of the Pacific Coast.

The lumbermen of the Pacific Coast declared that they were unable to get proper protection under the present system, and declared that they were unable to pass the bill without the consent of the lumbermen of the Pacific Coast.