BRIDGE OMISSIONS.

Mary Kirkill and young Oklahoma Train Wreck.

Miss Kirkill, an 18 year old girl, was killed in a train wreck. She was crossing the track near the railroad bridge in Kansas City, Mo., when she was struck by a train. She was taken to the hospital but died early this morning.

ARMY OF 3,000 INSURGENTS OUTSIDE CITY OF BATAVIA.

Show No Sign of Yielding

Local Leaders Order Gun Shells on Streets and Even Court To With Government Officers.

Her norms, Sept. 14.—The only remedy for the situation is the immediate arrest of all revolutionists. The commission of insurrection has been going on for years in Batavian history, and even confronting with common men, every Frenchman knows that such insurrections in the field as are now being carried on are the works of a few revolutionists. They are trained as experts in the field of insurrections, and are never entering the movement until they have been taught an independent attitude, which causes them to be kept from the track.

The situation is declared to be serious. The French authorities have no option but to act promptly.

The Insurgents have been shown to be a powerful force in the country.

The French government has been warned of the danger that the situation may develop into a full-scale war.

The insurgents have been shown to be well-organized and well-prepared.

The French government has no option but to act promptly.
