KILLED IN BOHEMIA

Chas. Rutten killed on T. N. Johnson property, Thawing Dynamite.

Chas. Rutten was killed last Thursday evening on the T. N. Johnson property in Bohemia while preparing dynamite to load. He was working on the dynamite, and approached the charge on the property. Rutten started for the place of the explosion, when he was killed by the explosion. The body of Rutten was taken to Wilbur for burial. funeral will be at 7:30 this evening.

BOHEMIA NUGGET

COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1906.

Vol. VIII

KILLED IN BOHEMIA

Chas. Rutten killed on T. N. Johnson property, Thawing Dynamite.

Chas. Rutten was killed last Thursday evening on the T. N. Johnson property in Bohemia while preparing dynamite to load. He was working on the dynamite, and approached the charge on the property. Rutten started for the place of the explosion, when he was killed by the explosion. The body of Rutten was taken to Wilbur for burial. funeral will be at 7:30 this evening.

SPECIAL ELECTION OCT. 20th

City Council Calls Election on Liquor Question.

A petition for an election under the provisions of the Initiative and Referendum initiative law for the next council meeting, was presented to the council Monday night. The petition was approved by the charter of the city so as to give the city a vote to allow or disallow the selling of liquor in the city. The petition was signed by a number of citizens of the city who desire to have the sale of liquor prohibited.

The following bills were read and approved by the common council and ordered paid:

Vander Schau, treasurer, for $13,000 Oregon, water company

J. D. Richmond killed through breaking of stunt floor.

J. A. Richmond, an employee of the Brown Laundry Co., met with an accident at the company store last Saturday night while on duty.

The truck was turned over the one who was working on the dressed floor of the building. The truck was turned over and the man was thrown from it and killed instantly.

CRUSHED BY TRUCK

State Labor Commissioner Helf was on the ground of the breakage of the truck in the city of Violina, and found that the man was killed instantly.

The man was a regular employee of the company and had been employed for two years. He was working on the dressed floor of the building when the truck overturned and he was killed instantly.

The truck was turned over and the man was thrown from it and killed instantly.

The man was a regular employee of the company and had been employed for two years. He was working on the dressed floor of the building when the truck overturned and he was killed instantly.