HAVE YOU SENT YOUR DOLLAR?

TO REPUBLICANS:
We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican National Congressional Committee in favor of the election of a Republican Congress.

The Congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and, that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign.

We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscriptions of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National Campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the Committee.

Help us achieve a great victory.

Grove Sunday.

There is always a good demand for laboring men. No man who wants to work need go without.

Mrs. W. B. Goodrich is moving household goods here and will make this her permanent home.

The American Mining Congress began its meeting at Denver yesterday and will continue all week.

Dr. Petrie has lost one of his fine dogs, this time old Boone, who dropped dead while following his master last week.

W. C. Johnson has returned from a trip into Eastern Oregon and is looking around for a time before deciding what he will do.

There will be a great reception to the new Methodist pastor Rev.
Beatty at the church parlors on Friday night, to which all are invited.

Mrs. J. A. Merryman, a sister of Mrs. Herbert Eakin, formerly of Spokane has moved to Portland, which will be her home in the future.

C. C. Case is getting ready to open up business in Cottage Grove.
He says he might just as well stay here, where he has his property as any place else.

The Star Lumber Co. is steadily improving its mill. It finds it will be necessary to have a lighting plant in order to work full hours this winter as the days are so short.

A fire just east of town in the timber threatened for a time the reservoir on Landess hill that stores water for city use, the early part of the week but was quickly gotten out.

B. C. Y. Brown, the editor and proprietor of the Yoncalla Courier, was a visitor in town on Sunday and Monday. He states that he is doing even a better business than he had expected.

Bartels is getting in a lot of fine pork these days, but good cattle are scarce. F. M. Ernest who is the meat buyer of the firm expects to leave for Elkton in a few days to buy some fine beef cattle there.

A total of enrollment of 380 is pretty good for the schools, being an increase of 24 over last year, this comes from the new residents, as there are fewer students from outside districts this year. Good for Cottage Grove's growing population.

Miss Roby Baker returned from Denver last week, as she found the altitude entirely too great for her to stand. She was seriously troubled by it and was too sick to work so came home. She likes the town but says a lower altitude for her.

Rev. F. L. Moore, former pastor of the Corvallis Methodist Episcopal church but for the past two years a pastor in Chicago, has been transferred by the conference to a charge at Puget Sound, Wash., and it is understood the family will visit Corvallis friends en route to the new field.—Corvallis Gazette.

Geo. Lea has been introducing around town his son Irwin, who is visiting him from Honolulu, where he is employed as manager and chemist of the Honolulu Refining several months ago for a visit but was delayed and now has only a short stay.

S. B. Morse shot with a Winchester rifle Monday a duck hawk that measured four feet from tip to tip of its wings. Mr. Morse had shot at him twice while he was sitting and as he flew off took another chance, not expecting to get him, but did. He says there are two more that are getting the quails on his place and he is going to get both of them yet.

Rev. Olson of the Christian Church is an enthusiast, and is willing to tackle all kinds of jobs.
His latest is to build a gymnasium and to supply it with apparatus and to teach the young folks here to properly handle themselves. He is taking subscriptions for this project. The building will be on the lot by the Christian Church but will be independent of the church.

Sam Jones, the great evangelist is dead, having had a sudden stroke of heart failure Monday morning at Perry, Arkansas. He was one of the greatest orators and preachers of the world. His early life was a very different one. He was a lawyer and was very wild and drunken, but on the death bed of his father reformed, and since '72 has been a minister.

The Thompson hotel is getting to be quite a stopping place for wedding parties, having had half a dozen or more within a short time.
E. S. McAllister and bride stopped there last week, also a young couple on their wedding trip from Nebraska seeing the coast country, and Geo. Harrison and his bride, they having been married in Roseburg last Thursday and they are now at Jim Hawleys.

Mrs. Annie Bohlman has brought suit for divorce from Geo. Bohlman in the Circuit court alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married July 23, 1900 and both reside here.

Mattie F. Kirk also seeks divorce from her husband James W. Kirk, making the same declaration as Mrs. Bohlman. They were married in 1884, and have three chilren whom the mother desires to care for.

The new foundry is progressing rapidly. The building is practically completed, and the machinery is being set up as fast as possible.
When it is completed, it will be a great advantage not only to the sawmills around here but to all classes of work where heavy machinery needs to be replaced and repaired. It is filling a place long needed filled, and will be a much better concern than it was hoped to have at this time. Business is improving so rapidly and growing so in volume as to give a good chance for such a plant.

for constructing the Christian Church gymnasium. Work will begin at once.

D. J. Scholl is making a visit to his parents also Portland and will spend a few days in the Rose City before returning.

Edwin Tollar returned from a couple of weeks stay at Yoncalla.
He is not feeling quite strong after his long illness.

The Brown Lumber Co. bought two new tracts of timber last week.
The mill has been shut down since Tuesday primarily on account of the car shortage, and also because the loggers were somewhat behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell came to town on Tuesday. The drum on the big donkey engine that was recently received broke a short time after it was started running, and considerable delay was caused while getting a new drum, which was shipped down by express.
Mr. Russell is going to make the mill up there a better mill right along and is steadily improving it.

Farewell Reception.

The Coos Bay Times of Oct. 10th contains the following article about a farewell reception to Rev. Beatty at Marshfield, just before he left for Cottage Grove:

A farewell reception was given to Rev. Beatty and family in the M. E. Church last night at the close of the regular Epworth League business meeting.

While the election of officers was being waged with the fierceness of a Marshfield mayoralty campaign in the League parlors, members and friends of the church were gathering in the main auditorium for the reception.

At 9 o'clock the League adjoined and joined the waiting audience, which almost filled the church. After a few minutes of visiting and handshaking, a pleasing program was rendered. F. C.
Birch made a few introductory remarks. Mr. C. R. Wade favored the gathering with a solo and encore, Miss Susie Eickworth acting as his accompanist. Recitations were given by Misses Mary Levar and Doty Brown, Mrs. D. H. Savage, W. Beatty and D. H. Savage, all receiving due applause.

Hon. C. A. Schilbrede, on behalf of the Sunday school, told of the pleasant relations with the pastor and how much it regretted his departure. M. D. Summer gave the League's farewell address, after which Rev. Beatty responded in appropriate words. The League then presented the pastor with two volumes of poems as a token of remembrance, and the evening's entertainment closed with refreshments.

Rev. Beatty and family left for Cottage Grove on the stage this morning.
