THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN.

With so many fierce and exciting local campaigns in the east the congressional contest has been almost lost sight of. Yet it is one of the most important from a national standpoint. At present the republican party has a majority of a 114 in the house and about two-thirds of the membership of the whole senate; and in fact more than that for general purposes.

The senate does not seem likely to change much either in personnel or in politics, as almost all of the thirty members whose terms expire are strong candidates for re-election, though it is probable that the republicans will lose a few of their majority.

The situation in the house is different, there the republican majority is abnormal, and is a resultant of the great tide of Roosevelt popularity of a couple of years ago. Republicans have been looking forward to a reduction of the majority to sixty or slightly less. The latest analysis claim a majority of 58 figuring that the sure republican districts are 22, sure democratic 130, doubtful but probable republican 21, doubtful, but probable democrat 13. The democrats claim a reduction of the republican majority to 47.

The cry everywhere is "support the President," and figuring that there is no reason why a man who voted right in 1904, should vote wrong in 1906, there is little reason to expect any radical change.

The Yoncalla Courier is advocating the establishment of a Development League at that point, in order that a united effort might be made to push the country forward, and further states that as it is when a buyer comes to town he meets only one individual, where he should meet an organization which would be ready to give any and all information, and would be ready to give a united boost to the town and country. That's the right idea, Cottage Grove's Commercial Club has worked along that same line and has done much to help Cottage Grove, and can do much more yet.

Mrs. J. B. Protzman's father and sister arrived Monday to visit her.

There is a good deal of work going on in Bohemia this winter that should mean a big showing in the spring.

Farewell Reception.

The following comes from the Medford Mail concerning two well known former Cottage Grove people:

Dr. and Mrs. A. Corpron, who are to leave for the mission field of East India during the early part of November, were tendered a farewell reception at the M. E. Church last Friday evening. A goodly number of friends and Dr. and Mrs. Corpron received a number of beautiful gifts, tokens of the regard of those who have learned to esteem them during their stay in Medford.

Rev. Mr. Hoxie, Rev. James Kelso and Rev. W. F. Shields each spoke in the most feeling terms of their departing friends and their noble calling and the latter dwelt at some length on the mission work in India and the people of that once bedighted land.

Dr. Corpron responded with a grateful acknowledgment of the expressions of loving sympathy received and referred briefly to the incidents leading to his call to the mission field.

Rev. W. C. Reuter, on behalf of the church, presented the following resolutions:

Whereas, Dr. and Mrs. Corpron feel themselves called to labor as missionaries in far-off India and whereas, in a few days they will depart for their new field of labor, the undersigned official members of the M. E. Church of Medford, Oregon.

Resolved, That we found Dr. and Mrs. Corpron valuable citizens of the community, Christians of high character, very efficient workers in the church of our Lord Jesus Christ and regard them valuable accessories to any community.

Resolved, That we extend to Dr. and Mrs. Corpron our best wishes and pledge them our ardent prayers for a safe and prosperous journey and the largest measure of success in their field of activity, and if ever in the providence of God they should return to this community, assure them a cordial welcome.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to Dr. and Mrs. Corpron and a copy be furnished to the Medford papers for publication.

W. C. Reuter, G. R. Lindley, C. A. Meeker, J. P. Roberts, W. H. Meeker, F. Frideger, D. T. Lawton, Ida Redden, Alice Roberts.

Hallowe'en Party.

The Miss Beattys entertained the Epworth Leaguers and their friends with a Hallowe'en party Wednesday evening at the parsonage.

The guests were received by two ghostly attired young ladies in a hall, which was lighted only by Jack o' Lantern placed in various corners and on the stairway. The evening was spent in playing games and telling stories suitable for the occasion. Light refreshments were served.

Will Come to Oregon.

"We're tired of niggers and cyclones, and we're coming to Oregon."

This is the immigration slogan of John T. Prior, of Prior Station, G. I. who is in Portland as the advance agent of a colony of 15,000 or 20,000 people who will come to Oregon to build houses if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Mr. Prior has laid his proposition before Secretary Labor of the Portland Board of Trade, who expresses great confidence in this proposition and declares that the board will do all they can to assist him.—Review.

High School Notes.

The first examinations of the High School for this year will be the last three days of this week. These examinations occur every two months.

The program of last Tuesday's assembly was changed from current events, which we generally have, to a spelling lesson. These spelling lessons will be given occasionally throughout the year from lists of misspelled words taken from test and examination papers.

Mr. Norman Hawley, a former student of the High School visited school last Thursday.

Hazel Hemenway, who has been absent from her class for some time on account of illness, expects to be back with us soon.

Miss Ethel Eskin, a former student of the High School has returned from Portland. We are glad to have her back with us, as she is another member to be added to the Sophomore class.

Supt. Dillard brought the books of the district library down to Cottage Grove Thursday.

This is the library purchased with the money obtained from the library tax. The books are all adapted to use in the grades but not very many are high school books. They are being catalogued and will be varnished. The board is going to get a good book case and then the books will be put up for use. These books with the books already in the different rooms will make a library in the school of about 150 volumes.

Silk Creek.

Amos Owens and sons returned home from Indian Creek last week. Reported a good time while taking their outing.

Storm and rain has been with us lately.

Sunday was the day for church service. A few gathered for service it being a stormy day.

The Intermediate School started Monday morning with Mr. S. G. Paup and Frank Peterson as instructors.

Mr. McCord came Sunday to commence school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wheeler left Monday for a visit to Mrs. Wheeler's brother and sister who live in California.

H. W. Babcock returned Friday from a visit with friends at Creswell.

Wm. Jos. Nolta.

Wm. Jos. Nolta died at Cottage Grove Wednesday at the age of 85 years and 4 months. He lived here with his two sons, one of whom is Joe Nolta. He has been feeble for some time and died of old age. He was buried from the parlors of Veatch & Lawson's being taken to the Masonic cemetery for interment.

He was born in Germany, but has been in this country for a good many years, and resided near Oakland for seven or eight years before coming here.

School Furnishers.

Curran & Veatch are furnishers of school supplies to most of the schools in this vicinity. On Monday morning they sent out a shipment consisting of fine new seats and desks and one recitation seat for the Wildwood school for which the tax payers in that district recently voted $200. This will make the school thoroughly up to date. The same date the firm received a shipment of seats and desks for the Comstock school.

Roosevelt Scorns Consequences.

Rabbi Wise, late of Portland in an address to the New York Y. M. C. A. on "Do or Die vs. Don't Die" said:

"Men are warned constantly of the consequence and peril of becoming extremists. The man who makes not all for truth and right, lest he sacrifice his influence and his prestige, has neither the one nor the other to lose.

"Theodore Roosevelt is the great saving asset of the republican party because he is rightly held by the nation to be a seer of consequences. Roosevelt is greatest when he is himself, his daring and achieving self; when shaking off the trammels of party allegiance, he dares to follow right, aye, to lead the people aright. The supreme test of his courage is yet to come, if it should become his duty to appeal from his party in the nation for the support, enactment and execution of those measures which are just and equitable and serve the welfare of the whole American people."

Special Song Service.

J. M. Isham states that there will be a special song service each Sunday evening at the Methodist Church.
