What You Can Do With This Oil Heater

With a Perfection Oil Heater you can heat a cold bed-room, make a sick-room more comfortable, warm a chilly hallway, heat water quickly, and do many things better than can be done with any other stove no matter what fuel it burns. The superiority of the

PERFECTION Oil Heater
(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

lies in the fact that it generates intense heat without smoke or smell. The oil found in the wick carrier is made of brass throughout, which insures durability. Gives great heat at small cost. Front has oil indicator and handle. Heater is light and portable. Absolutely safe and simple—wick cannot be turned too high or too low. Operated as easily as a lamp. All parts easily cleaned. Two finishes—black and japan. Every heater warranted. If not at your dealer's write nearest agency for descriptive circular.

The Rayo Lamp can be used in any room and is the best all-around house lamp made. Gives a clear, steady light. Is the safest lamp you can place. Equipped with the latest improved burner. Handsome—simple—satisfactory. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if you cannot get it from your dealer.

Stann Man.

"So the burglar that paid your home a visit the other night wasn't a 'gentleman burglar'?" said Mrs. A.

"I—I should say not," pouted Mrs. Z.

"He took all of your money?"

"Yes."

"And all of your jewels?"

"Yes. But I could have stood all of that, but for one thing."

"And what was that, dear?"

"He—he said the baby was home-ly."

Remorse in Installments.

Remorse, says a writer in the New York Tribune, does not always go as far as the offense which gives birth to it.

There was once a man who was robbed of one hundred dollars. A long time afterward he received this letter:

"Dear Sir: Five years ago I robbed you of one hundred dollars. I am filled with remorse that I could have done such a thing. I send you a dollar and a half to ease my conscience."

She Knew.

Sunday School Teacher—Can any of you children tell me what was King David's nationality?

Willie—Hebrew.

S. S. T.—That's right. Now, can any one tell me his wife's nationality?

Annie (after pause)—I know, teacher.

S. S. T.—Well, Annie, you may tell us.

Annie—Shelbrew.—Toledo Blade.

Wouldn't Have Been Strange.

Two women were strangers to each other at a reception. After a few moments' desultory talk the first said, rather querulously:

"I don't know what's the matter with that tall, blonde gentleman over there. He was so attentive a while ago, but he won't look at me now."

"Perhaps," said the other, "he saw me come in. He's my husband."

What It Was.

"Pop! Pop!"

For a moment the German crowd about the station swayed irresolutely.

"Vat eet sees—a shoot gun?"

"No, eet sees a auto vaggin exploding eets tires!"

But both suggestions were wrong.

It was only Emperor William kissing King Edward on both cheeks.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has surpassed all other medicines, in merit, sales and cures.

Its success, great as it has been, has apparently just begun.

It has received by actual count more than 40,000 testimonials in two years.

It purifies the blood, cures all blood diseases, all tumors and all eruptions.

It strengthens the stomach, creates an appetite and builds up the whole system.

It cures that tired feeling and makes the weak strong.

The Road to Wealth.

Not long since a dusty, tired-looking man presented himself at the desk of a hotel, announcing that he desired a room.

"I've got my supper and will be off before breakfast," said he to the clerk; "now what would be your lowest price for a room to sleep in?"

"One dollar, if you only occupy it for a night," was the reply.

"Well, wouldn't half a dollar make it just about right?" demanded the wayfarer, producing a 50-cent piece.

"You see, I'm all excited up travelin', and I don't expect to sleep more than half the time I'm in there."

Between Friends.

Mayme—Jack says he admires my frankness and that my face in like an open book to him.

Elyth—Well, the comparison is quite appropriate, for you certainly do keep your face open most of the time.

Differentiating.

"William," said the boss, "sort those eggs into two piles. They are to be sold at different prices."

"Yes, sir," said the boy. "The fresh and the near fresh?"

"No, you lunkhead; the big and the little."—Chicago Tribune.

In the Nick of Time.

Coloridge was enumerating the stenches of Cologne.

He had counted up to seventy-one, and stopped in despair.

"That seems to be all!" he muttered.

"And I've just got to have another one!"

At this moment an automobile whizzed by.

"Ah!" he exclaimed. "There it is!"

Sniffing the strange odor with satisfaction in spite of its disagreeable quality, he proceeded to write his immortal poem.

Taking Its Size.

Going west on the Union Pacific through the southern portion of Wyoming, the view is one of continuous sand and sagebrush, a veritable desert. It is told that Mark Twain was going through one time and in the dining car his eye spied "Sage chicken" on the bill of fare. He called the waiter and asked what that was.

"It's chicken, sah, raised right through here, sah."

"Can they fly?" asked the humorist.

"Yes, sah, they can fly, sah."

"Well, then, I don't want any. Anything that can fly and stays in this country long enough to be killed can't be much good. None for me."

Exception.

"We reap as we sow," said the moralizer.

"I never do," rejoined the demoralizer. "I'm an amateur gardener, you know."

Information.

The train had stopped for water at a little station in the country.

The passenger with the skull cap, seeing a lone native standing on the station platform, addressed him.

"Farmers around here seem to have been cutting a good deal of hay this morning," he said.

"Yes, sir," answered the native.

"They're taking risks. Don't you think it looks like rain?"

"Sort o'."

"What do you suppose they will do if it does rain?"

"I reckon they'll have sense enough to go in out of it, mister."—Chicago Tribune.

Sure Enough.

"Hear your old minister's gone in for ritualism."

"Yes; he's gone wrong completely."

"Why, how can you say that? He's all rite now."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A MISSOURI WOMAN.

Tells a Story of Awful Suffering and Wonderful Relief.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson, of 603 West Hickman St., Columbia, Mo., says:

"Following an operation two years ago, dropsy set in, and my left side was so swollen the doctor said he would have to tap out the water. There was constant pain and a gurgling sensation around my heart, and I could not raise my arm above my head.

The kidney action was disordered and passages of the secretions too frequent. On the advice of my husband I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Since using two boxes my trouble has not re-appeared. This is wonderful, after suffering two years."

The celebrated author, so lightly esteemed by the women of America, says on pages 101 and 105 of her popular work, "Eve's Magazine," for November 1904, "I have read your book, 'The Mother and the Daughter,' and I am glad to see that you have written it so well. It is a very good book, and it is a pity that it is not more widely known. It should be kept over the seat of a woman for several days—in a woman's case for perhaps a fortnight."

"For pain in the back or an Allcock's Plaster on the back will wear off. This is an invaluable support when a woman on the ill of the back becomes heavy and treading in a cessant."

Physicians Recommend Castoria

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory."

Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Wm. J. McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recommendation of Castoria."
