God Will Sprinkle Sunshine

If you should see a fellow-man, with troubles flog unfurled,
An lookin' like he didn't have a friend in all the world,
Go up and slap him on the back and holler "How'd you do?"
And grasp his hand so warm he'll know he has a friend in you.

Then ask him what's a burtin' him, an' laugh his cares away,
2nd tell him that the darkest hour is just before the day,
Don't talk in graveyard palaver, but say it right out loud,
That God will sprinkle sunshine in the trail of every cloud.

This world at best is but a lash of pleasure and of pain;
Some days are bright and sunny and some are slashed with rain,
And that's just how it ought to be, for when the clouds roll by
We'll know just how to prelate the bright and smiling sky.

So learn to take it as it comes and don't sweat at the pores
Because the Lord's opinion does not coincide with yours;
But always keep rememberin' when cares your path enshroud,
That God has lots of sunshine to spill behind the cloud.

—Riley.

THANKSGIVING TIME AT HAND.

Tomorrow comes our annual recognition of the blessings of the year the day typical of our true American spirit, the thoughtful expression of God's favors. Again we recount our blessings, name them one by one, and humbly thank "That great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be."

The day comes each year to be one of more thoughtful thankful praise, when families and friends are once again united in loving fellowship, joining in thankfulness that they have passed another year with its sorrows and tribulations, with its load of care, but with a still greater share of prosperity and good cheer which outweigh the others. That peace has rested upon our nation, that the day is no longer a symbol of the victory of any political issue, but of the victory of self.

The day means more to most of us than worship of turkey and football, which are all right in their place but which sometimes almost exclude the light of the great purpose of the day.

For ourselves, we have great reason for thankfulness, the year has been a good one in every way, and we have received our share of prosperity and join in the universal rejoicing over a prosperous year.

WHO SHALL TAKE THE VACANT PLACE?

When you set your table for thanksgiving, set an extra place, and then have some stranger to fill it. Were you ever a stranger in a far-off land, away from home and friends on Thanksgiving Day—did the day seem to you one for joy and thankfulness. Think it over quick, there are dozens of young men and women, old men and women, strangers just like you have been, who must enjoy a friendless dinner by themselves. Open your heart and home to them for Thanksgiving and take some one home to dinner with you, it may be a message of home to some boy that will touch a lost chord in his life.

LEGITIMATE MINING.

Instead of bringing to Cottage Grove the benefit that would be derived by the employment of the large number of men that the district would warrant of legitimate mining operations were indulged in, many companies are formed with no thought or idea of square legitimate mining and no one seems to dare to say a word, except the professional knocker or crook that can be hired to get into the way of any attempt at bringing the district into repute and the place it has a right to take among prominent mining centers of the work, and the Bohemia District is not alone in Oregon suffering the same fate.

With Yoncalla and Creswell shipping carloads of apples away this year, it seems rather queer that Cottage Grove can't get in line and do likewise. The land here will raise just as fine apples as any of the land at any other point so it ought to be done.

Seventh Annual Y. M. C. A. Convention at Eugene.

DIED

Dorena, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Frances America Marshall died at her home in Dorena Tuesday night, Nov. 20, 1906, of diabetes.

Francis A. Marshall was born in Missouri Nov. 25, 1811. She crossed the plains with her father Nelson Brown in the year 1816, and settled at Oregon City, being one of the earliest pioneers of that vicinity. He was also one of the first settlers of the Summer Lake Valley, and came to Silver Lake where he engaged in the mercantile business.

He was a genuine good citizen and a first class man.

On Feb. 22, 1887, Mrs. Francis A. (Brown) Anderson was married to Charles P. Marshall. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her death. Ida the wife of John Hill at Klamath Falls, Miss the wife of E. M. Taylor at Plymouth, and Anna C. Hough the wife of William Hough at Silver Lake. All in the same state.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall formerly operated the hotel at Silver Lake until of late they moved to Dorena where they bought a small piece of land and have made their home here until now.

Mrs. Anna Hinch died at the family home at Star last Wednesday. Mrs. Hinch with her children only came from their old home in Wisconsin about two months ago, to join her husband Leonard Hinch, who had come west to start a new home, and was employed at the Star Lumber Co. mill. Her body, with that of her infant child which had been buried the day before, and was disinterred, were laid in the same casket and brought to the Grove, and will be buried today, after the O. & S. E. train gets in, in order that friends from Star may be present at the funeral. Mrs. Hinch was only 26 years of age, and the eldest of her three children left with their father is only 5 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinch had made many friends in their short residence here, who grieve with father and children the loss of the tender wife and mother, who has gone to her last sleep.
