What We Most Need.

Men who cannot be bought.

Men who put character above wealth.

Men who possess opinions and will.

Men who will not lose their individuality in a crowd.

Men who will be honest in small things as well as great things.

Men who will not do anything profitable that is dishonest.

Men whose ambitions are not confined to their own selfish desires.

Men who are willing to sacrifice private interests for the public good.

Men who are not afraid to take chances who are not afraid of failure.

Men who will not have one brand of honesty for business purposes and another for private life.—Register.

1906-1907

The Misses Berg opened the doors of their home on Monday evening and received a company of young people, who very gaily and pleasantly spent the remainder of the year together.

The young men were ushered into the parlor, who immediately very ably sang good songs while the girls were elsewhere getting in readiness for a guessing contest.
Each girl in disguised costume represented a month of the year and in alternate turn entered the doorway.
The boys put on their thinking caps but it seemed to be of no avail and after the game were instructed to become better acquainted.

Next a bean bag throwing contest was indulged in and M. H.
Anderson was master of the game.
Many games were then participated in too numerous to mention and the very best of music was rendered throughout the night by Miss Evans of Eugene.

Partners were selected and all adjourned to the dining room where delightful refreshments were served in courses.

After the repast Mr. Old Year who feasted with the young people for the last time departed and gave way to Mr. New Year, who brought each one a letter of the future. They were read and none were disappointed with the messages that their new friend had for them. The event was very successful and will be remembered for a long time to come.

Those present were: Misses Eunice VanDenburg, Ethel Moore, Tressa Garoutte, Katie Knowlton, Hazel Hazeltin, Francis Beatty, Sophie Osberg, Gertrude and Antoinette Burdick, Gertrude Palmer, Miss Blair and Miss Evans.
Messrs. Simeral, Orvil Taylor, Ren-Sanford, Will Sherwood, Lloyd Bisby, Merle Sowell, Frank Sly, Taber Beatty, Fred Washite and M. H. Anderson.

We have received a fine new, special lot of handsome, hand-forged, hollow ground Radiumite Razors that usually sell at $2.00 each at retail, which we will give away absolutely free to advertise the wonderful

RADIUMITE DOLLAR RAZOR STROP which is light, pliable, durable, convenient and safe, and which is revolutionizing the art of shaving.

A RAZOR GIVEN FREE TO THE PURCHASER OF EACH STROP

CALL TODAY AS THEY ARE GOING FAST. We make this remarkable free offer of a most excellent razor, properties of the Radiumite Strop, which will not hurt, the closest and most delicate razor. They make shaving a convenience and a delight, even to men having the hardest beards. The secret of a quick, clean shave does not lie so much in a good razor as in a good strop. With the RADIUMITE STROP the most inferior razor brought up to a fine edge, and the effect of the strop upon the finest razors is to keep them sharp long enough to shave in the most perfect condition, ready to shave the hardest beards easily and delicately. Each Radiumite Strop is issued under the positive guarantee that if it is not satisfactory money will be refunded. They are for either ordinary or safety razors.

Radiumite Strops, 50c to $2.50; Razors, $1 to $3

DANGER LURKS IN THE USE OF ANY STROP BUT A RADIUMITE!
Horrible skin diseases, such as CANCER, BARBERS' ITCH, ECZEMA and BLOOD POISON, often result from the use of imperfectly sharpened razors that cut, irritate and open the skin, thus admitting the terrible bacilli that lurk in the sweat pores of shaving soaps, late shaving brushes, and in the air itself.

THE ONLY PERFECT STROP IS THE RADIUMITE Don't use the worthless, heavy, double-edged, common cut-throat razors, which are so generally sold, and with which the fine lines of ten will try to affect you. They are so much of junk, dirt and waste. The Radiumite razor is the only razor that is perfect in every respect.
Buy a Radiumite razor and take no substitute—no matter how handsome it may appear. Danger lurks in the use of any razor but a Radiumite.
