T. K. Campbell of Cottage Grove Appointed Member of the Railroad Commission

In the appointment of T. K. Campbell of Cottage Grove as a member of the Railroad Commission for the term of six years ending in 1907, he will be one of the most experienced of the commissioners. Several years ago he was the Republican candidate for a seat in the house of representatives, and the former governor of Oregon, E. S. Farnsworth, in his little speech to the crowd said he was a man of untiring industry, and a man who had done much, and the bill appointed him a seat in the house of representatives. The occasion was one of the most important of his life, and the governor, in his speech, said, "He has been a man of many years' experience, and has done much for his country." The appointment of T. K. Campbell to the Railroad Commission is an appointment that will be welcomed by the people of Oregon.

The news came as a surprise to the people of Cottage Grove, and the friends of T. K. Campbell, who expected him to be appointed to the United States Congress, were surprised to hear of
