OPERATORS DEPART. Kansas Union Employees at Chicago Faced a Strike.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—The Kansas Union Employees at Chicago have given notice to the Oregon Railway Mail Company that they will strike at the expiration of a 120 hour notice if the company shall not meet their demands. The notice was given on Tuesday afternoon and will expire at midnight tonight. The company is believed to be prepared to meet the demands of the employees.

Railroad Will Raise Rate by Relating Rates.

Burlington, Feb. 13.—The Burlington Railroad Company has raised its rates on all goods shipped over its lines by 50 cents per hundredweight. This is the first increase in rates that the company has made since the recent reduction in fuel costs.

Dozens Will Away on New Tariff As Work Cost and MAKE MACHINES PAY

Burlington, Feb. 13.—The Burlington Railroad Company has announced its intention to raise its rates on all goods shipped over its lines by 50 cents per hundredweight. This is the first increase in rates that the company has made since the recent reduction in fuel costs.

President and Congress From San Francisco in Deadlock.

PEACE PROGRESS WOULD NOT...

EXCLUSION OF JAPANESE CLAIMS ONLY WILL EGLING AGREEMENT—Pres- ident and Congress from San Francisco in Deadlock.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—A complete deadlock existed here today between President and Congress over the bill for the exclusion of Japanese in the United States. The bill has been passed by the Senate and the House, and President Coolidge has been asked to sign it. The President has refused to sign the bill, and Congress has failed to pass it over his veto.

President and Congress are now in Washington, where they will hold a conference to try to settle the question.

Long Array of Legal Talent.

Alaska Lawyers Gathered From Far and Near for the Opening of the New Alaska Court of Appeals.

ANCHORAGE, Feb. 13.—A long array of legal talent was on hand today for the opening of the new Alaska Court of Appeals. The court was opened by Governor C. R. Burnett, who presided at the opening session.

The court will consist of three judges, appointed by the governor, and will have jurisdiction over all cases involving judgments of $100 or over.

The court will consist of three judges, appointed by the governor, and will have jurisdiction over all cases involving judgments of $100 or over.

Cleaners and Dyeing.