

U. S. DISPENSATORY

Describes the Principal Ingredients Contained in Peru-na.

Are we claiming too much for Peru-na when we claim it to be an effective remedy for chronic catarrh? Have we abundant proof that Peru-na is in reality such a catarrh remedy? Let us see what the United States Dispensatory says of the principal ingredients of Peru-na.

Take, for instance, the ingredient of hydnastis canadensis, or golden seal. The United States Dispensatory says of this herb, "It is largely employed in the treatment of depraved mucous membranes, chronic rhinitis (nasal catarrh), atonic dyspepsia (catarrh of the stomach), chronic intestinal catarrh, catarrhal jaundice (catarrh of the liver), and in diseased mucous membranes of the pelvic organs. It is also recommended for the treatment of various forms of diseases peculiar to women."

Another ingredient of Peru-na, corydalis formosa, is classified in the United States Dispensatory as a tonic. So also is cubeba-classed as a stomachic and as a tonic for the mucous membranes.

Cedron seeds is another ingredient of Peru-na, an excellent drug that has been very largely overlooked by the medical profession for the past fifty years. The seeds are to be found in very few drug stores. The United States Dispensatory says of the action of cedron that it is used as a bitter tonic and in the treatment of dysentery, and in intermittent diseases as a substitute for quinine.

Oil of copaiba, another ingredient of Peru-na is classified by the United States Dispensatory as a mild stimulant and diuretic. It acts on the stomach and intestinal tract. It acts as a stimulant on the genito-urinary membranes. Useful in chronic cystitis, chronic dysentery and diarrhea, and some chronic diseases of the liver and kidneys.

Send to us for a free book of testimonials of what the people think of Peru-na as a catarrh remedy. The best evidence is the testimony of those who have tried it.

HARDSHIPS OF ARMY LIFE.

Left Thousands of Veterans With Kidney Troubles.

The experience of David W. Martin, a retired merchant of Bolivar, Mo., is just like thousands of others. Mr. Martin says: "I think I have had kidney disease ever since the war. During an engagement my horse fell on me, straining my back and injuring the kidneys. I have been told I had a floating kidney. I had intense pain in the back, headaches and dizzy spells and the action of the bladder was very irregular. About three years ago I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, and found such great relief that I continued, and inside a comparatively short time was entirely rid of kidney trouble."

CATARRH BLOOD AND SYSTEM DISORDERED

Catarrh is not merely an inflammation of the tissues of the head and throat, as the symptoms of ringing noises in the ears, mucous dropping back into the throat, continual hawking and spitting, etc., would seem to indicate; it is a blood disease in which the entire circulation and the greater part of the system are involved. Catarrh is due to the presence of an excess of uric acid in the blood. The Liver, Kidneys and Bowels frequently become torpid and dull in their action and instead of carrying off the refuse and waste of the body, leave it to sour and form uric acid in the system. This is taken up by the blood and through its circulation distributed to all parts of the system. These impurities in the blood irritate and inflame the different membranes and tissues of the body, and the contracting of a cold will start the secretions and other disgusting and disagreeable symptoms of Catarrh. As the blood goes to all parts of the body the catarrhal poison affects all parts of the system. The head has a tight, full feeling, nose continually stopped up, pains above the eyes, slight fever comes and goes, the stomach is upset and the entire system disordered and affected by this disease. It is a waste of time to try to cure Catarrh with sprays, washes, inhalations, etc. Such treatment does not reach the blood, and can, therefore, do nothing more than temporarily relieve the discomfort of the trouble. To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be thoroughly purified and the system cleansed of all poisons, and at the same time strengthened and built up. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the very bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. removes every particle of the catarrhal poison from the blood, making this vital stream pure, fresh and healthy. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is loosened and cleared, the hawking and spitting cease, and the constitution is built up and vigorous health restored. S. S. S. also tones up the stomach and digestion and acts as a fine tonic to the entire system. If you are suffering with Catarrh begin the use of S. S. S. and write us a statement of your case and our physicians will send you literature about Catarrh, and give you special medical advice without charge. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores.

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear of, but no good result. I then began S. S. S., and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six years ago, and I am as well today as any man. I know there is nothing on earth better for the blood than S. S. S. Nobody thinks more of S. S. S. than I do. M. MATSON, Lapeer, Mich.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood, and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. A HELP TO OTHERS.

"That was a beautiful thought the minister gave us about being on the lookout for little unobtrusive ways we can help others, wasn't it?" said Miss Spears, fervently, to Mrs. Walley, as the two women walked slowly home from church together.

"Um-m, yes, it's a beautiful thought," said Mrs. Walley, in a guarded manner, "but the last time parson preached that sermon—twas five years ago, just before you came here—it made considerable trouble in my family."

"Yes," continued Mrs. Walley, with an unseeing gaze on the changing foliage of the village trees, "Hiram saw a letter directed to his Aunt Letitia lying on the sitting room table, and he thought he wouldn't wait for me to ask him to post it, same as I always had to do two or three times before he remembered."

"That sermon was right fresh in his mind, and he picked up that letter, sealed it, stamped it and posted it, all without saying a word to me till next day. Then he spoke of it real modest and yet pleased with himself."

"I'm going to try to live up nearer to that sermon than I've been doing, Mandy," he said to me, "and make things easier for you; lift some of the little burdens of life off'n your shoulders."

"Well, Hiram," I said, as soon as I could speak without making his head right off, for you know I'm high-tempered, excepting for what grace I've got, 'I know you meant well—but that wasn't a letter to your Aunt Letitia you've sent off."

"That envelope had her old address on—of course you didn't notice that. She'll get it, but it'll make her mad as a hornet when she sees it and thinks I've been careless and forgotten the new place; and inside were three elegant crochet patterns I was calculating to take over to the minister's wife to-morrow. I put 'em in that old envelope for safe-keeping—they've been there more'n six months. I was intending to let the minister's wife copy them. I laid the envelope out soon as we got back from meeting, so I'd remember."

"Your Aunt Letitia despises fancy-work, so she'll throw them in the fire and then sit down and write me."

"So she did," added Mrs. Walley, grimly, "and it took a good deal of work to get her straightened out."

"On the whole, there wasn't any lasting harm done, but I was only thinking as I sat there this morning, I was sort of relieved to think Hiram's cold kept him home from church to-day, all things considered."

MARK TWAIN'S "INSIDE PRICE."

How the Poor Bookseller Felt Over "Discounts."

Mark Twain some time ago told this story at a dinner given to Tax Commissioner Charles Putzel at the Freund-Schaft Society Clubhouse in New York:

"I saw Mr. Putzel twenty-five years ago in Putnam's book store. I went in there and asked for George H. Putnam, and handed in my card. A young man took it in, but came back and said that Mr. Putnam was busy and could not see me. I had merely gone there on a social call and started to leave. As I was going out my eye was attracted to a big, fat, interesting-looking book. It was entitled 'The Invasion of England in the Fourteenth Century by the Friars.' I asked the price of it."

"'Four dollars,' was the answer."

"'What discount do you allow publishers?'"

"'Forty per cent.'"

"'Well,' I said, 'I am a publisher.'"

"'He put down the figures '40 per cent' on the card."

"'I said: 'What discount do you allow authors?'"

"'He said: 'Forty per cent.'"

"'Well,' I said, 'I am the author. You can put that down. What discount do you allow the clergy?'"

"'He said, '20 per cent.'"

"'Well,' I said, 'I am on the road.' So I took 20 per cent for that."

"'He put down the figures and never smiled once. Here I was working off all these scintillating brilliancies on him, and not even a spark of recognition. I was almost in despair. I thought I would try him once more, so I said:

"'You know I am also a member of the Human Race. Would you allow me 10 per cent off for that?'"

"'He set that down—never smiled—so I said:

"'There is my card with my address on it. I have no money with me. Send the bill to my home at Hartford.'"

"'I picked up the book and was going away when he said: 'Wait a minute; there is 40 cents coming to you.'—Publisher's Weekly.

An Art Anecdote.

Edward Rosewater, founder and editor of the Omaha Bee, had a sincere love of art. He hated pictures that indicated scamped work, so called impressionistic pictures that were merely rough and hurried sketches and so called portraits that bore no likeness to their originals. A young painter showed Mr. Rosewater one day a portrait of a mutual friend.

"That a portrait of Smith?" the editor exclaimed. "I'd never have known it."

"Oh," the artist exclaimed, "I didn't try for a likeness, you know. I tried for an effect—an effect in grays."

"I know a man in New York," said Mr. Rosewater, "who had his portrait painted last year. It cost him $1,000, and he was very proud of it. When it came home he showed it to his cook."

"Well, Mary," he said, "how do you like this portrait?"

"Sure, sir," said the cook, "it's lovely. It's beautiful. It's divine."

"And, of course," said my friend, "you know who it is?"

"Oh, of course I do, sir," said the cook. "Of course, of course." As she spoke she kept drawing nearer to the picture, studying it more and more closely. "Of course, sir," she said, "it's you or the mistress."—Buffalo Enquirer.
