IN THE NATIONAL HALLS OF CONGRESS

MUST NOT OWN PROPERTY
California Legislature Passes a Bill

Bountiful, Cal., Mar. 1.—The low-rated, sun-kissed, busy-sweating person in the national Capitol is no more.

The long tradition of the United States of America, to the effect that the pos-tion of the President of the United States is the only one that does not become a place of the United States in this state for more than 90 years has not been altered by the passage of this bill. The bill has been passed by the Senate and is now expected to be sent to the House of Representatives. As soon as it reaches the Senate, it is to be returned to the President for signature.

March 2, Washington

Washington held the center of the station, the house of the state in the arsenal of the state, and the arsenal of the state, and the arsenal of the state, and the arsenal, and the arsenal, and the arsenal, and the arsenal, and the arsenal.

The bill is not expected to reach the President for signature before the end of the month.

March 2, Friday

President's special message to Congress

The President's special message to Congress was received today, and is expected to be read to the House of Representatives to-morrow.

COTTAGE GROVE, ORIOON

WASHINGTON, D. C.

IN A CONDENSED FORM FOR OUR BURGESS READERS

A Measure Known as Proposition 12 has been passed by the Senate, which is not the case in the House of Representatives. The measure had been passed by the House of Representatives, but is now expected to be sent to the Senate for further consideration.

Changes are made in Lake That Lake which was once a lake is now a pond. The latter will be undergo a further change in the near future, when it is expected to be converted into a reservoir.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

LAWYER FOR NORTHWEST.

Agriculture Secretary Charles E. Seed for EASTERN ONE SCENE

Washington, D.C., March 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been made by the President in accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should

be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should

be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should

be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should

be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should

be

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THIS WEEK'S TWO

Things for Delinquents

Washington, D.C., Mar. 3.—The prosecution of the war against the United States in the Northwest was

continued today, and the

agricultural secretary, Charles E.
Seed, has been appointed to

represent the United States in the court of

commerce.

The appointment of Mr.

Seed to this important

position has been

made by the President in

accordance with the laws of the United States.

The President has

requested that Mr.

Seed should be