PLUNDERED BY HILL MORGAN

TOURIST FROM BURLINGTON, Vt.

Washington, March 28.—Hill Morgan, a "tourist" from Burlington, Vt., has been sentenced to 50 years in prison for his part in a $50,000 burglary at a Philadelphia department store. Morgan, who was convicted of the crime last week, is alleged to have participated in the robbery with a gang of others.

Tract Company Marked at $450,000—Nancy Teaser from Two Telephone Companies.

San Francisco, March 29.—Before the grand jury yesterday, a treasurer of the city, H. B. Shears, testified that $10,000 worth of materials were stolen from the job. Mr. Shears also testified that he was forced to pay the men who worked on the job.

The Shears case was brought to the attention of the supervisors by a complaint from the city attorney. The supervisors have been investigating the matter and have decided to proceed with the case.
