CULLING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Mayor Jones Appoints the Various Committees—A Large Number of Bills Allowed, and a Lot of Important Business Transacted.

The council met in regular session on Monday last. Mayor Jones was present—Barnes, Stock, Coolidge, and Ostermiller were present and took their seats at the council table. The Mayor did not deliver his annual address as he was unable to do so for the following reason: He had the sneezing disease given to him by the press, so to speak. The Mayor recommended the following ordinance for the adoption of the city: A. Ordinance to provide for the payment of taxes levied, on and for the year. The ordinance was read, and after due deliberation, was adopted by the council. The Mayor then appointed the various committees for the year:

Committee on Finance: Barnes, Coolidge, Stock.
Committee on Public Safety: Ostermiller, Barnes, Coolidge.
Committee on Public Improvement: Coolidge, Ostermiller, Barnes.
Committee on Public Utilities: Stock, Coolidge, Barnes.

The Mayor also appointed the various committees for the year:

Committee on Education: Barnes, Coolidge, Ostermiller.
Committee on Public Health: Ostermiller, Barnes, Coolidge.
Committee on Public Safety: Coolidge, Ostermiller, Barnes.
Committee on Public Utilities: Stock, Coolidge, Barnes.

Mayor Jones expresses the hope that the council will take up the business of the year in a business-like manner, and that they will be able to transact their business in a business-like manner.

The council then adjourned sine die.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS

Farms of Western Lane Especially Recommended by Thoroughly Arranged—Investigating Committee Report Favorably.

We are in receipt of the following letter:

Cow, Ore., April 20, 1907.

Mr. C. W. Crow, Lane County.

Sir,—I have had the honor to arrange the preparations for the coming meeting of the Lane County Agricultural Society, and to appoint a committee to select the farms to be recommended for the coming meeting. I am also requested by the Hon. J. F. Crow, Lane County, to report favorably.

The committee has arrived at the conclusion that lane County should be represented by the farms of the following farmers: John A. Crow, Mr. C. W. Crow, and Mr. J. F. Crow.

I am, Sir, yours truly,

[Signature]

The Farmers of Western Lane are especially recommended by the thorough investigation of the Lanecounty Agricultural Society.

CALLS CANAL MASS MEETING

At the Court House, Eugene on April 21.

Several meetings have been held in the county under the direction of the board of county supervisors, and the proposed canal has been talked about in many parts of the county. The farmers of the county have been very active in encouraging the project, and it is expected that the canal will be completed in the near future.

The farmers of the county are requested to attend the meeting at the Court House, Eugene, on April 21, to give their support to the canal project.

The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. and will be addressed by several speakers who have been active in the project.

The farmers of the county are asked to attend the meeting and to give their support to the canal project.
