Enthusiasm Greets Capt. Hammond

Who Makes Favorable Report to Adjutant General and Mastering Orders May Come Shortly

HEADQUARTERS OREGON NATIONAL GUARD
Adjutant General's Office.

SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS
APRIL 12, 1917

Captain Creed C. Hammond, Ist Separate Battalion, will proceed to Cottage Grove, Oregon, for the purpose of organizing and training at that place a company of infantry and upon completion of this duty return to this station, reporting his findings to the Adjutant General, who is to prescribe the expense incurred in the Military service.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief,

W. E. PINZER,
Adjutant General.

CAPTAIN C. HAMMOND.

CAPTAIN C. HAMMOND, of the 5th Battalion, was elected yesterday afternoon at Cottage Grove, where he was appointed by a General Order to the Adjutant General's Office. He was a candidate for the rank of captain and for a commission in the Oregon National Guard.

The appointment of a captain and for a commission in the Oregon National Guard.

Cottage Grove's Representation

The selection of Miss Mcelroy as one of Oregon's representatives to the Legislature next term is indeed significant for the town of Cottage Grove, where she was born and reared.

Miss Mcelroy, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weir, has been associated with the school system in Cottage Grove for many years.

Cottage Grove's Representation

The selection of Miss Mcelroy as one of Oregon's representatives to the Legislature next term is indeed significant for the town of Cottage Grove, where she was born and reared.

Miss Mcelroy, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weir, has been associated with the school system in Cottage Grove for many years.

Cottage Grove's Representation

The selection of Miss Mcelroy as one of Oregon's representatives to the Legislature next term is indeed significant for the town of Cottage Grove, where she was born and reared.

Miss Mcelroy, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weir, has been associated with the school system in Cottage Grove for many years.

Cottage Grove's Representation

The selection of Miss Mcelroy as one of Oregon's representatives to the Legislature next term is indeed significant for the town of Cottage Grove, where she was born and reared.

Miss Mcelroy, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weir, has been associated with the school system in Cottage Grove for many years.