Although Easter came early this spring, when it is generally considered that spring has fairly set in, yet, the weather clerk has been giving us a dose of early March until the past week. Fruit trees are all arrayed in their beautiful spring suits and all other signs now convince one that spring is indeed here. The mornings are cloudy and threatening but towards noon the sun shines and the days are pleasant after all.

Our hotel arrival list shows that Cottage Grove is a small hamlet no longer, but a town of some importance and is so recognized abroad. Many of the arrivals are strangers, hunting homes, locations for business, etc. and a large portion are representatives from the wholesale houses of Portland and San Francisco anxious to open accounts with our merchants. This of itself is a high recommendation for any town, and is a sure sign of its prosperity.

TIMBER LAND, ACT JUNE 3, 1878—NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office
Roseburg, Ore., April 4, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, CHARLES DEMAREST of Carlton, county of Yamhill, State of Oregon, Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 7957 for the purchase of the W 1/2 of S E 1/4, N E 1/4 of S E 1/4, and S E 1/4 of N E 1/4 of Section Number 22 in Township No. 20 south, Range No. 5, west, W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before W. W. Calkins, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Eugene, Oregon, on Thursday, the 11th day of July, 1907.

He names as witnesses: William R. Kelly, of Lorane, Oregon; Ed Kelly, of Lorane, Oregon; Henry Cogill, of Springfield, Oregon; Frank Cogill, of Springfield, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 11th day of July, 1907.
