Horses take snow.

The Governor, in issuing of Illinois Kid in Village of Chicago, March 30, said:

"The school board has been advised of the existence of a new strain of the virus, which is spreading among horses in the area. The board should take immediate action to prevent the spread of this disease by quarantining affected horses and restricting movement of horses and equipment."