President to King

German Ambassador Carries Message on Hague Neutrality.

DISTANCES ARE DRAWN AWAY

Austria and Germany Refuse to Discuss Limiting of Armaments—Serious Rupert Foiled.

Washington, April 25.—A report is available here today of a meeting between Austrian and German diplomats in the person of the Austrian ambassador and two German residents here.

The diplomatic situation in Europe is clearly becoming worse because of the refusal of the two countries to discuss the question of limiting armaments. Rosenberg, the German ambassador, has been here a few days and has been receiving invitations to visit the government offices. The Austrian ambassador, Count Weichs-Hallstein, has not been here for some time.

The Austrian minister here said it was his intention to call upon the German minister, Count von Scholl, today.

The Austrian minister is expected to remain in the United States for several days and will probably visit the national capital.

In this connection it was reported here today that the Austrian minister will visit Washington on the 26th.

President to King

Washington, April 25.—A report is available here today of a meeting between Austrian and German diplomats in the person of the Austrian ambassador and two German residents here.

The diplomatic situation in Europe is clearly becoming worse because of the refusal of the two countries to discuss the question of limiting armaments. Rosenberg, the German ambassador, has been here a few days and has been receiving invitations to visit the government offices. The Austrian ambassador, Count Weichs-Hallstein, has not been here for some time.

The Austrian minister here said it was his intention to call upon the German minister, Count von Scholl, today.

The Austrian minister is expected to remain in the United States for several days and will probably visit the national capital.

In this connection it was reported here today that the Austrian minister will visit Washington on the 26th.

The Austrian minister here said it was his intention to call upon the German minister, Count von Scholl, today.

In this connection it was reported here today that the Austrian minister will visit Washington on the 26th.