The Eugene Register has the following to say of the new company: The newly organized Separate Co. E. O. N. G., is starting out under most flattering auspices and we are inclined to think under a "lucky star." Architect John Hunziker is now at work on plans and specifications for a fine two-story, solid brick armory, 50x90 feet on the ground and finished up in most approved style. B. K. Lawson is the projector of the enterprise and it will be built this summer. There will be two large store rooms on the ground floor and the second story will be used for club rooms, parlors and a drill room. This will give the boys a pleasant home, gymnasium and drill room right from the start and will be a great incentive towards keeping the organization alive, and doing efficient work.
