TEN YEARS OF PAIN.

Unable to Do Even Housework Because of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Margaret Emmerich, of Clinton St., Napoleon, O., says: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from kidney troubles. My back pained me terribly. Every turn or move caused sharp, shooting pains. My eyesight was poor, dark spots appeared before me, and I had dizzy spells. For ten years I could not do housework, and for two years did not get out of the house. The kidney secretions were irregular, and doctors were not helping me. Sloan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief and finally cured me. They saved my life."

State Treasuries Overflowing.
Through ingenious methods of taxing railroads the treasuries of some States are so swollen that State officers are puzzled to know what to do with State funds. New Jersey's receipts from corporations have filled its treasury. Pennsylvania had a surplus of $10,000,000 and no debt to speak of. Back taxes received from railroads and the collection of a war claim of $1,000,000 have enabled Wisconsin to pay extraordinary expenses, put $643,000 into the State treasury and cut the school tax levy in two.

Prejudice.
"What do they call this skyscraper on the left?" asked the stranger.
"That's the Reliance building," said the native. "It's erected almost entirely by doctors."
"By doctors? And they call it the 'Reliance'?" Well, well!"

A Nurse for Sick Dogs.
A young New York woman is a trained nurse for sick dogs. For some time she has been a member of the staff of the New York Dog Hospital, where the sick pets of the wealthy are nursed back to health. She often has as many as a hundred dogs to care for. It is her duty to give them their medicine, and in other ways carry out the doctor's orders exactly as a trained nurse would do for human patients.

Old Favorites

An Indian Serenade.
I arise from dreams of thee
In the first sweet sleep of night,
When the winds are breathing low
And the stars are shining bright.
I arise from dreams of thee,
And a spirit in my feet
Hath led me—who knows how?
To thy chamber window, Sweet!

The wandering airs they faint
In the dark, the silent stream—
And the Champaka odors pine
Like sweet thoughts in a dream;
The nightingale's complaint
It dies upon her heart,
As I must die on thine,

O, beloved as thou art!
O, lift me from the grass!
I die! I faint! I fall!
Let thy love in kisses rain
On my lips and eyelids pale.
My cheek is cold and white, alas!
My heart beats loud and fast;
O, press it to thine own again,
Where it will break at last!
—Perry Bysshe Shelley.

Crossing the Bar.
Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of Time
and Place
The floods may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have o'er the bar.
—Alfred Tennyson.

CARAVANS OF THE DESERT.

Gold Hunters and Consumptives Found Traveling Side by Side.
Ever journeying across the desert sands and climbing the arid peaks and foothills of the far Southwest are two caravans—one seemingly rugged and healthy, though afflicted with a disease called goldomania, the other emaciated by the great white plague.

One is scarcely more optimistic than the other; one procession seeks a glittering yellow dust that means riches, the other a more precious thing—health. Though the trail may be long and the water holes infrequent; though the desert sun may be blistering and the tongue swollen with thirst; though the mountains may be steep and the path strewn with cacti, there is the glittering substance in the sand a little farther on for the argonaut; a lease of life at the horizon, when the red desert sun announces the dawn of another day, for the white plague's victim.

To many seeking their wonted vigor the hope that ever carries them onward is sometimes as futile as the race after the will-o'-the-wisp that lures the argonaut.

But the procession moves on and on; the pilgrims cannot leave the sands until the mountain air and sunshine have healed the scars made by death's chief ally.

The main trail of the weak-lunged leads from Peos to Yuma. For more than 1,000 miles prospector and plague-ridden traverse its tortuous course. In the caravan seeking gold nearly all are poor. In the caravan exiled and fighting for health there are rich and poor, high and low, democratic and fraternal in their ill and expectancy.

To some this hope is as uncertain of realization as the prospector's pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. But many who have early joined the pilgrims, after years of travel by day under the scorching sun and sleep by night in the pure air of the mountain top, end their allotted exile and return to the old home 1,000 or more miles distant.

But the ranks are soon recruited and some there are who must travel along the great highway until the end. Oftentimes the bones of prospector and plague-ridden are found bleaching in the canyon. The skeleton hand of one is outstretched up the hillside, where others reach the goal—and gold; the bony fingers of the other point home.—St. Louis Republic.

Illustrious Shoemakers.
Shoemaking is a calling which has given the world some very great men. One authority asserts that the majority of cobblers have exceptional brains; that their attitude when stooping over their work tends to a cranial development in the part where the intellectual faculties are seated. Some one has written a book of illustrious shoemakers. In it are Sir Claudesley Shovel, Gifford the Terrible, Bloomfield, author of the well-known "Farmer's Boy"; Carey, the orientalist; Admiral Myngs, George Fox, founder of the Society of Friends; John Kitto, the biblical scholar, and Sturgeon, the electrician. The list of illustrious shoemakers runs into scores.

How to Ebonize.
Picture frames, chairs and other furniture may be ebonized by washing them four times, thoroughly drying between times, in a boiling mixture of strong logwood and water. Then wash the wood in a solution of acetate of iron, which is a mixture of iron filings and vinegar.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

You must look well after the condition of your liver and bowels. Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently, all vegetables. The dose is only one pill at bedtime.

Getting His Measure.
Aunt Filura was preparing soup for dinner, when one of the neighbors happened in on a borrowing errand.
"Why, Aunt Filura, isn't that an unusually large soup-kettle?" asked the caller, with a calculating glance at the stove on her passage across the kitchen.
"If you're just looking at the kettle, it does seem plumb sizable," said Aunt Filura, calmly; "but when you cast your looks on the extents and pliability of my Enoch's mouth, I reckon 'twon't look any too large, that kettle won't."

Properly Censored.
"When Maxim Goriky dined with me," said a literary New Yorker, "he talked about the Russian censorship."
"He said that in the course of the Russo-Japanese war he had occasion in an article to describe the headquarters of one of the grand dukes. He wrote of these headquarters, among other things:
"And over the desk of his highness's tent is a large photograph of Marie la Jambe, the beautiful ballet dancer."
"Before this article could appear, the censor changed that sentence to:
"And over the desk of his highness's tent is a large map of the theater of war."

The lighthouse at Corunna, Spain, is believed to be the oldest one now in use. It was erected during the reign of Trajan, and rebuilt in 1634.

BAD BLOOD

THE SOURCE OF ALL DISEASE

Every part of the body is dependent on the blood for nourishment and strength. When this life stream is flowing through the system in a state of purity and richness we are assured of perfect and uninterrupted health; because pure blood is nature's safe-guard against disease. When, however, the body is fed on weak, impure or polluted blood, the system is deprived of its strength, disease germs collect, and the trouble is manifested in various ways. Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes and the different skin affections show that the blood is in a feverish and diseased condition as a result of too much acid or the presence of some irritating humor. Sores and Ulcers are the result of morbid, unhealthy matter in the blood, and Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood disorders that will continue to grow worse as long as the poison remains. These impurities and poisons find their way into the blood in various ways. Often a sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, leaves the refuse and waste matters to sour and form uric and other acids, which are taken up by the blood and distributed throughout the circulation. Coming in contact with contagious diseases is another cause for the poisoning of the blood; we also breathe the germs and microbes of Malaria into our lungs, and when these get into the blood in sufficient quantity it becomes a carrier of disease instead of health. Some are so unfortunate as to inherit bad blood, perhaps the dregs of some old constitutional disease of ancestors is handed down to them and they are constantly annoyed and troubled with it. Bad blood is the source of all disease, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and purified the body is sure to suffer in some way. For blood troubles of any character S. S. S. is the best remedy ever discovered. It goes down into the circulation and removes any and all poisons, supplies the healthful properties it needs, and completely and permanently cures blood diseases of every kind. The action of S. S. S. is so thorough that hereditary taints are removed and weak, diseased blood made strong and healthy so that disease cannot remain. It cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., and does not leave the slightest trace of the trouble for future outbreaks. The whole volume of blood is renewed and cleansed after a course of S. S. S. It is also nature's greatest tonic, made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is absolutely harmless to any part of the system. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores. Book on the blood and any medical advice free to all who write.
