G. M. Hall and Mr. Wheeler started on Monday on an overland trip to the Coos Bay country. They expect to be gone for several days.

The county board has appointed F. J. Hard supervisor of road district No. 60 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Damewood.

Messrs Medley & Johnson returned Monday from the county seat, where they were successful in foreclosing a miner's lien in the case of August Sinsche vs LeRoy, in the Superior Court.

C. Ross King and wife have gone for an extended visit in the East and will also see the Jamestown Exposition before they return home.

We would call the attention of our readers to the new ad of the Wynne Hardware Company which appears in this issue. This firm is so well and favorably known in and around Cottage Grove that we could say nothing that would add to its popularity. The firm this year is handling the famous McCormick farm implements and the Mitchell wagons and buggies, and their stock of hardware is complete, and would be a credit to a much larger city, and they are fully prepared to furnish anything needed on the farm, ranch, mine or for building purposes. Before purchasing anything in their line do not fail to visit their establishment.

The county court has been busy sending out notices to road supervisors and all others who are doing work for the county on bridge, road or other work that by a lately passed law, eight hours constitutes a day's work and a heavy penalty is provided for those who work men longer. Only in case of saving of property or human life are longer hours allowed and then time and one-half is allowed for overtime. The law went into effect last Saturday.

The man who died from the effects of drinking wood alcohol a couple of weeks ago and who gave the names of Reeves, was buried Monday from Veatch & Lawson's Undertaking Parlors. No friend or relative of the man has been found, although every effort has been made. It is not even sure that the man gave his right name.

Oliver Veatch, the popular dealer in general merchandise makes an announcement to our readers in his advertising space this week. This institution by its straightforward dealing, and the pleasant greetings given customers by the proprietor and clerks, enjoys a large trade, and by handling only first-class goods, the customer's return is always an assured fact when they need any article.

W. R. Parsons who was injured at Dorena several weeks ago, by being struck by a log, was brought to the city on Saturday and sent to his home at Ashland. The limb which was badly fractured will be saved, though for time it was feared it would have to be amputated.

The hardware firm of Griffin & Veatch make a seasonable change in their ad this week. They were too busy to write any more this week, than merely to remind their numerous customers that they are still handling all needed farm implements and everything to be found in a first-class hardware establishment and you will do well to remember this wide-awake firm when needing anything in their line.

John M. Williams is no longer prosecuting attorney for Lane county. By a law passed by the last legislature a new district attorney is to be appointed, and the governor will probably make the appointment for a few days. There are several candidates for the office but the principal ones are Judge McFadden, of Corvallis and Jos. Medley, of Cottage Grove.—Register.

A car-load of bottles arrived for the London Mineral Springs last Friday, and were taken out to the Springs to be filled with the famous mineral water.

The Toggery is the only firm dealing exclusively in Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city, and is constantly receiving new and up-to-date styles in mens' wear. His ad in this issue tells a story worth reading.

The county court has made an appropriation of $250 to get together an exhibit from Lane county at the state fair this fall. They also appointed G. W. Griffin, Amos Wilkins and E. M. Warren as a committee to look after the matter and the money will be paid out only upon their order.

Strawberries seem to be plenty at the stores, but taste highly of silver. The home product has not yet put in an appearance, but may be looked for in a few days.

Coughs and colds contracted at this season of the year should have immediate attention. Bees Laxative Cough Syrup contains Honey and Tar and is unequalled for hoarseness, croup and coughs. Pleasant to take, mothers endorse it, children like to take it. Contains no opiates. Moves the bowels. Sold by New Era Drug Store.

In Remembrance of Cloyd Parson.

Died May 12, 1907.

Another bright flower was plucked today
For the Master's garden far away,
And transplanted with care by an angel's hand
To a brighter home in a far off land.

Dear little Cloyd, if you only knew
How many tears were shed for you,
But the sweetest of the angels have charge of thee now,
And are weaving bright laurels for thy marble white brow.
