The Charity Girl

Chapter 1

As Audrey gave that cry of triumph, audacious Sheila scurried across the room, flushed with her successful effort. Jack was quite charmed with the idea, and it was therefore agreed there should be no talk of the matter after a certain hour. Audrey, however, would not have it so. She was determined to see the matter through to the very end, and though she knew that Joel and Jack were both highly unamiable, she was determined to have it out with them. She therefore consented to meet them after she had arranged with her friends.

She therefore determined to do her best to make matters as smooth as possible, and to try and get the matter settled in the best possible way.
