KURIKI SHUDDERS
Warrior Turns From Bloody Work of Stock Yards.

BURLINGTON, Ia., May 29.—Kuriki Shudders, noted Yakuza warrior, surrendered to Captain O. G. Wood, of the United States Army, at Burlington, Iowa, today. The surrender followed a three month's hunt for the Yakuza, who was finally captured as he was walking about the streets.

The Yakuza is accused of murder in California.

DUTCHMEN GREAT INDUSTRY

Netherlands Mills in Canada to Make Yarn

The Dutch government has given the go-ahead for the construction of a large mill in Canada, where a Dutch firm will build a large mill for the production of yarn. The mill will be built by the Dutch company, Hollandia, and is expected to be completed within the next two years.

A recent report indicates that the Dutch government plans to invest a large amount of money in the development of the Canadian textile industry.

CHINA'S APPROACH TO THE UNITED STATES

China's ambassador to the United States has arrived in Washington to present his credentials to President Roosevelt. The ambassador is expected to discuss a number of issues with the American government, including trade relations and military cooperation.

KUKOWSKI DENIES SHUDDERS' VERBAL APPEAL

Kukowski, the Yakuza leader, has denied Shudders' claim that he will surrender. Kukowski stated that he will continue to fight until he is captured.

CHINESE NURSES IN CANADA

A group of Chinese nurses has arrived in Canada to work in the hospitals. The nurses, who are highly trained, will provide medical care to the Canadian population.

KUKOWSKI PLANS TO FIGHT

Kukowski, the Yakuza leader, has stated that he plans to continue his fight against the authorities. He has vowed to resist any attempt to capture him.

KUKOWSKI DENIES APPEAL TO ROOSEVELT

Kukowski, the Yakuza leader, has denied that he made a verbal appeal to President Roosevelt. He stated that he has never made any such appeal.

DOUGLASS WORKED TO DEATH FITTING LIQUOR

Doigliss, the Yakuza leader, was working on a fitting of liquor when he was attacked by a group of Yakuza. The attack resulted in his death.

DOUGLASS LEFT HOME A WEEK AGO

Doigliss, the Yakuza leader, left home a week ago to work on the fitting of liquor. He was expected to return home within a few days.