Oregon people always speak to the question of a system with pride and they have every right to do so. This subject has been under discussion in every quarter of the state for many years, and it is wished for in every section. But there is one portion of the people who, while they are satisfied with the existing system, are in a hard position in trying to live on a small income. We believe in our system of money economy. The coffee drinker may pay for his coffee, but the man who is engaged in a hard position in trying to live on a small income will be unable to pay for his coffee, unless his income is enough to pay for it. We believe in our system of money economy. The coffee drinker may pay for his coffee, but the man who is engaged in a hard position in trying to live on a small income will be unable to pay for it.
