WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1907

The Polk County Itemizer published an editorial last week concerning the different trusts that are fleecing the consumer and incidentally alludes to the change in the school text books as follows:

"We have a number of trusts now doing business in this way, among which might be mentioned the small matter of text books for our public schools. They set the price both ways and by influence brought to bear upon a foot state text book commission change the books whenever desired, bringing in an entirely new lot of books—all handled by the same parties and who derive the profits—and the people simply have to pay for no better books, but give an added percent on old books exchanged for the new."

The Oregonian takes exception to this portion and alludes to the editor as a "Rube" who does not know what he is talking about and embraces in the term of "Rubes" all country editors who have dared to intimate that the change of text books so often, worked a hardship on some and was perhaps unnecessary.

Perhaps the Itemizer was a little more forcible than polite in using the term "fool state text book commission" though at the same time may be correct but as there is one H. W. Scott on the commission it struck him rather hard on his bump of egotism.

Of course Oregonian Encyclopedia H. W. Scott, does not care what these little "Rubes" think or say on any matter or concerning him, but still he "does not like the little 'fiste' barking at him," so occasionally, as in the present case, sets down on them as hard as he can.

But Mr. Scott, as one of the brainiest men in the state ought to know better than to say, because a man is a country editor, he is a "Rube" or devoid of brains for some of the brainiest men we have were once country editors. The Itemizer is right and is not the only country paper that decries the action of the change of text books every few years without cause.

Mr. Bryan accuses President Roosevelt of having stolen his principles. Mr. Bryan's principles have been so valued that it is a pretty difficult matter to keep from infringing upon him. He has his 16 to 1 principle left, however, and nobody is trying to steal either that or his "crown of thorns, cross of gold" idea. They are safe in his possession for all time to come—Medford Mail.

Oregon has received no better advertisement than the visit of the Oregon girls throughout the East. The newspapers everywhere they visited gave them extraordinary attention, and now comes the Ft. Worth (Texas) Record of last Sunday, devoting its leading editorial to their trip and complimenting the plan as being "novel, valuable and effective for publicity purposes."

The Oregon bankers met during the week, the attendance being larger and more thoroughly representative than any former gathering of that body.

Masons Elect Grand Officers

The Masonic Grand Lodge was in session all last week and joined with the Portland Commercial Club in laying the corner-stone of the new eight story steel building that will be the home of that Club as soon as completed.

The following were elected officers by the Grand Royal Arch for the ensuing year:

F. W. Davis of Union, grand high priest; A. H. Steiner of Salem deputy grand high priest; Edward Kiddle of Island City, grand king; Frank J. Miller of Albany, grand scribe; David P. Mason of Albany, grand treasurer (reelected) James F. Robinson of Eugene, grand secretary (reelected); A. J. Marshall of Portland, grand captain of the host; H. L. Pitcock of Portland, grand lecturer; O. P. Coshov of Roseburg, grand chaplain (reelected); C. J. Buchanan of Oregon City, grand principal sojourner; Oscar Hayter of Dallas, grand royal arch captain; John M. Howe of Eugene, grand master third veil; L. C. Marshall of Eugene, grand master second veil; George E. Davis of Canyon City, grand master first veil; D. C. Tomasi of Portland grand sentinel (reelected).

Pileules for the kidneys and bladder. They bring quick relief to back-ache, rheumatism, lumbago, tired worn out feeling. They produce natural action of the kidneys in filtering waste matter out of the blood. 30 days treatment $1.00. Money refunded if Pileules are not satisfactory. Sold by New Era Drug Store.

Delegates to Development League.

The Commercial Club at their meeting last week, selected the following gentlemen as delegates to the Portland Development League which meets on June 21 in that city: F. Hinds, Frank Phillips, M. A. Anderson, F. H. Rosenberg, W. H. Garson, J. B. Protzman, J. H. Chambers and Charles Bruneau.

Headache and constipation disappear when Dade's Little Liver Pills are used. They keep the system clean the stomach sweet. Taken occasionally they keep you well. They are for the entire family. Sold by New Era Drug Store.

Mix This At Home.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and system all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as back-ache, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases.

Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach.

Get the following harmless ingredients from any good pharmacy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

This simple mixture is said to give prompt relief, and there are very few cases of Rheumatism and Kidney troubles it will fail to cure permanently.

These are all harmless, every-day drugs, and your druggist should keep them in the prescription department; if not, have him order them from the wholesale drug houses for you, rather than fail to use this, if you are afflicted.

Great Forest Wealth

dull brown, sap wood, dull white; compact, soft, tough, durable. Use: Veneer, staves, woodenware, wood pulp, trunks, drums, barrels and drawer bottoms.

SHOWY WILLOW

A slender tree, twenty to thirty feet high, two to four feet in diameter, with dark brown bark; leaves, lanceolate, acuminate, serrulate; capsules ovoid, acuminate, short pedicelled. Use: Baskets, veneering, charcoal, fuel.

WESTER YELLOW WILLOW

A small tree fifteen to forty feet high with yellow bark, leaves oblong, serrulae, short petioled. Use: Excellent for basket work. There are many other kinds of willow growing along the streams of this county, most of which are excellent for basket and woodenware work.

OREGON ALDER

A large tree, fifty to a hundred feet high, and four to ten feet in diameter; bark, dark brown blotched with white; leaves oval to elliptic, thickened with prominent rusby veins beneath; fruits ovoid to oblong, one half to one inch long, the nutlets are surrounded by a membranous wing; wood, reddish, hard and durable. Use: Furniture, buggy boxes, cabinet work, for smoking meats and salmon. It furnishes the most satisfactory fuel known for either camp or household.

HAZEL

Shrub or small tree, six to forty feet high, three to ten inches in diameter, leaves, orbicular to ovate, incised, serrate; fruit, ovoid, and edible nut; wood brownish, hard, receives a high polish. Use: Shoe pegs, baskets, barrel hoops.

OREGON WHITE OAK

A tree from fifty to one hundred and fifty feet high, two to five feet in diameter; leaves from four to six inches long, two to five inches wide, coarsely lobed; acorns about one inch long, cup shallow, heart wood light brown, sap wood nearly white compact, heavy, strong, hard, tough, durable. Use: Furniture, wagonwork, shipbuilding, carriages, interior finishing, fuel, veneer, barrel hoops. The Oregon oak is noted for the growth of large beautiful bunches of mistletoe, which grows among the limbs.

OREGON BLACK OAK

A medium sized tree, sixty to one hundred feet high and one to six feet in diameter, with rough black bark; leaves large, deeply lobed; acorns one to one and one-half in. in diameter, oblong; wood dark and close grained, hard, compact, receives a high polish. Use: Finishing lumber, furniture, wagon work.

OREGON MAPLE

A magnificent tree, fifty to one hundred feet high, two to five feet in diameter; leaves, the largest of the genus, four to twelve inches long, cordate, deeply three cleft, fruit a samara, densely hispid; wood reddish brown, sap wood, whitish, close grained, compact, often curly, light, hard, strong, receives a high polish.

Use: Furniture, cabinet work, tool handles, turned work, veneer, fuel. It is an exceedingly valuable shade tree, and grows in abundance in the streets of all our towns. It attains its greatest size in the rich bottom lands.

CASCARA SAGRADA

(CHITTEM)

A valuable tree twenty to fifty feet high, six to twenty-four inches in diameter; leaves elliptical, two to seven inches long; fruit black, turbinate, three-seeded, wood pinkish, hard, compact, but showing large annual growths, receives a high polish. Use: Wood for cabinet work. The bark is medicinal.

NOTE—Lane county has for many years shipped large quantities of this bark. The average price is about ten cents a pound. The total value of Oregon's cascara output for 1906 is estimated at one hundred thousand dollars.

OREGON ASH

A tree twenty to one hundred feet high, and one to four feet in diameter; leaves compound; leaflets five to seven, lanceolate, oblong to oval, acuminate, two to four inches long; fruit, winged, an inch long, wood, grayish brown, hard, tough, firm, straight-grained, takes a high polish.

Use: Furniture, inside finishing, wagon work, stair posts. There are many other kinds of wood in this county that might be mentioned, but we have described the ones that are the most plentiful, and of the highest commercial value.

Graphophone FREE

Occasionally persons desiring to purchase a Graphophone conclude that they can secure a lower price on a machine by buying at Eugene, Portland, or by sending East. We want to make those persons the following proposition: Anyone laying proof before us to the effect that they or any of their friends have purchased or own purchase any type of Edison, Columbia or Victor Graphophone or records at any of the above mentioned places, any cheaper than we are selling the same, will be given a Graphophone absolutely free. Every agent is bound by the same contract to sell only at the prices fixed by the factory and any agent doing otherwise is promptly suspended. When you buy elsewhere you are simply out the express, freight or your car fare in transaction. Buy from your local dealer who is here to stay and make good all guarantee.
