NEWS FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, July 16.—A shower of enemy shrapnel, exploded by an enemy shell, injured two women and a child in the afternoon in the apartment house at 1305 39th Street N.W. The explosion caused considerable damage to the stucco and to the interior decorations of the apartment house.

NAVAL OFFICERS FRIGHTENED.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Fear of a bomb explosion in the vicinity of the Navy Yard caused a large crowd to form and a military police detachment to be sent to guard the entrance, but the crowd dispersed after the area was searched.

NAVAL OFFICERS FRIGHTENED.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Fear of a bomb explosion in the vicinity of the Navy Yard caused a large crowd to form and a military police detachment to be sent to guard the entrance, but the crowd dispersed after the area was searched.

TIRED OF BEING GOVERNOR.

Judge Wichmann Granted Bereavement Leave.

Judge Wichmann, Washington, July 15.—Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Federal judge was granted bereavement leave to attend the funeral of the late Senator Van Deusen, who was the friend of many lawyers and judges.

The judge is expected to return to his duties in the next few days.

Climate.